VIKING

1970 Viking presented by The Yearbook Staff
of
Frederick High School
Frederick, South Dakota

We Dedicate This to You . . . Mr. Sorenson

We, the 1970 graduating class of Frederick High School, dedicate our "Viking" to you, Mr. Sorenson. Your patience and understanding in those times when we needed it have been appreciated. As a teacher, you have devoted more than just your time and energy to guide us. As a token of our appreciation, we dedicate this Viking to you as a remembrance of the 1970 Seniors. May your future be as happy and prosperous as our high school days have been under your guidance.

Vikings Convert to 11-Man Football

The Frederick Vikings played 11-man football for the first time as they switched to the Northern Conference and compiled a record of 2-6.

The Vikings were defeated by Ellendale in the season opener 22-6. The next game was a 12-6 loss to Ipswich. Traveling to Northville, the Vikings came home with a 14-6 victory. Homecoming was made complete with a 35-8 conference win over Cresbard. Doland squeaked by Frederick 28-26 in an upset. The maroon and gold battled Groton in the first half, but then the Tigers pulled away to a 60-6 victory. The squad was then defeated by Eureka 50-9 in another conference game. The Vikings closed their season with a 32-8 loss to Leola on a mud-soaked field.

Frederick was outscored by their opponents 218-112.

Owen Bain led the scoring with 6 touchdowns for 36 points. Ray Voeller had 3 touchdowns, kicked 5 extra points and 3 field goals of 35, 38, and 37 yards for 32 points. Lee Podoll had 18 points, Mark Taylor and Tim Wilson each 12 and Art Borden had 2 points respectively.

The leading yard gainer during the season was Owen Bain with 708 yards, followed by Ray Voeller with 537, Tim Wilson with 321, Mark Taylor with 319, Lee Podoll with 294, Art Borden with 65, and Dan Rahja with 26 yards.

After the second game of the season, Art Borden replaced Mark Taylor as quarterback. Mark then took over the wing-back position.

Dan Rahja and Ray Voeller led the defense with 87 and 84 tackles respectively, Owen Bain collected 66, Bill Bakken grabbed 55, Mark Taylor had 50, Rodney Barr had 48, Miles Bretsch had 38, Lee Podoll and Rodney Dosch had 35, Tim Wilson had 32, Bob Rahja had 24, Art Borden had 23, and Archie Rempher had 22.

ROYAL COURT

Candidates Keep Fingers Crossed

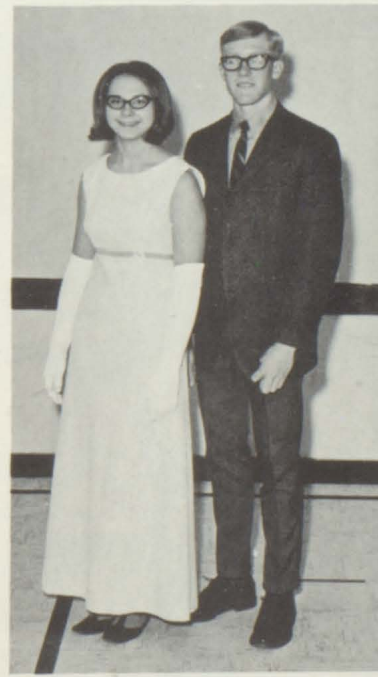

Frederick High celebrated its 1969 Homecoming on Friday, October 3, with Queen Gayle Jarvi and King Owen Bain reigning over the festivities after they were crowned Thursday evening. A program held in the Barnard gym consisted of a pep-fest, introduction of football players by Coach Pudwill, skits by each class, and the coronation. Gayle and Owen were crowned by last year's royalty, Queen Rhea Christianson and Roger Napton, substituting for King Terry Ochsner. Other candidates for queen included Linda Hart, Marsha Kotila and Barb Mikkonen. King candidates consisted of Wayne Schleder, Lee Podoll and Bob Rahja. Acting as crown bearers were Karen Ronning and Keith Kendall. Brent Wiitala was the master of ceremonies for the program. After the coronation a pep fest-bonfire was held at Frederick.

"In Memory" and "Sail on to Victory" were the themes used by the sophomore class to capture first place in both the skit and float competition. The juniors also received both seconds for their skit "Flirts and Echoes" and float "Spirit Leads the Way." The senior skit "The Party" and "Tiny Tim's Wedding" presented by the freshman class, rang up third and fourth places respectively. The freshmen received third for their float "Clean the Comets" while the Alumni Association float "This Was the Way It Was" won the best out-of-school prize. The seniors received special commendation for their float "Magic Carpet Ride" which carried the homecoming royalty.

Friday evening the Frederick Vikings led a smashing football victory over the Cresbard Comets as the game ended 35-8. After the game a dance was held in the Barnard gym with music provided by "The Third Stone."

Seniors Present: "Lock, Stock, and Lipstick"

Gordon Warren, (Robert Rahja), a meticulous type of young man, is the student counselor in Pembroke High School. The Board of Education decided to add a woman counselor to its staff. Jane Gardner, (Marsha Kotila), is the vivacious and attractive new girls' counselor. Miss Entwhistle, (Karen Fischer), the domineering principal of Pembroke, forgets to find a place for Jane to stay so she stays at the school temporarily. Mrs. Maggs, (Barbara Mikkonen), the new cleaning lady tucks everything neatly away in its proper place, and no one can find a thing, except Mrs. Maggs. Miss Prather, (Debra Krueger), long-time mathematics teacher, returns to school with her longer-than-usual list of complaints. Mr. Plunkett, (Lee Podoll), head custodian, insists on being given his proper title, that of Supervising Sanitary Engineer. The Donley's move to town, and two sons enroll at Pembroke. Don Donley, (Wayne Schleder), boy friend of Mary Lou Brennan. Larry Donley, (Owen Bain), has only one ambition, that of being only one shade above delinquent. Mrs. Donley, (Marcia Ronning), is a social climber, whose children can do no wrong! Carol Izzard, (Susan Lahr), is an over-made-up, loud-talking high school girl, whose appearance improves over the school year. Mary Lou Brennan, (Linda Hart), is a charming, lively senior who is editor of the Pembroker. Mrs. Rollo directed the play and Leslie Luoma assisted her.

Band Entertains

The 62 members of this year's Frederick High School Band had a very busy year. Marching through wind and rain and even snow in Ellendale College's homecoming parade, the band and director, Mr. Roger Kendall, kept going. The band also attended other parades in this area. Their first performance was made in Hecla, September 26, with sunny skies presiding. Accompanying the band in our own homecoming parade, October 3, 11 drill team members and the marchers stepped off a routine to "That's Soul." The third and fourth parades participated in were in Ellendale College's homecoming parade on October 11, and Northern's Gypsy Day Parade in Aberdeen on October 25.

Two new additions to the band for the marching season were new fiberglass tubas.

Students and Community

During the fall and winter months, the pep band helped boost school spirit by playing at football and basketball games. This year the band added a few numbers to the Christmas concert which was held on the afternoon of December 22. A spring concert on March 24 was also executed successfully.

Attending the Region 4 music contest on April 3 and 4, were the band, small ensembles, and soloists. The band received an excellent rating on their selections. Those receiving superior ratings were Brass Sextet, Flute Trio, Kathy Cantwell, and Jacki Smith. Mike Rollo received an excellent.

Candidates chosen from this year's senior band for music camp at Vermillion this summer are Ramona Gustafson and Jacki Smith. These girls are being sponsored by the Alpha Circle.

Junior Class Presents "The Stuck Pot"

Alice Ann Sedgewick (Pam Prunty), the daughter of Grace (Mary Schaubman) and Willard Sedgewick (Artie Borden) is very scientifically minded. Her roommate, MaryJaneThompkins (Val Podoll), is somewhat of a scatter brain. Gail Treat (Nancy Eissinger) and Kay Emerson (Karen Bain) are two of her other friends that help in the horrible plot. Dean Louise Taggart (Margaret Sumption) is a spinster, but is somewhat interested in Dr. Jacoby (Kenny Bain), headmaster of Jason School. Lucile Coulter (Kathy Hoss) and Amy Caldwell (Ramona Gustafson) are two of the teachers at Worthington Women's Academy. At the dance, Alice meets up with Edward Mott (Dean Olson) who is also scientifically inclined. Gail keeps herself busy with Grant Weston (Charles Fuhrman), while Mary Jane is interested in Hubert Farrelly (Rodney Barr). Extra's were Patsy Cantwell, Sharon Senger, Diana Ham, Mary Connell, Alice Kopetsky, Penny Wells, Jacki Smith, Barbara Heine, Sandi Maunu, Gerry Krogman, Mike McKay, Ivan Schlenker, Blaine Christianson, and Bill Bakken. Mrs. Rollo directed the play with Charles Fuhrman as assistant director.
