BEFORE US LIES THE FOREST; NOW LET US BUILD

Those were the days
 My friends,
 We thought they'd
 Never end.
 We'd sing and dance
 Forever and a day.
 We'd live the life
 We'd choose,
 We'd fight and Never lose.
 For we were young and
 Sure to have our way.

*To You,
Mrs. Rollo,
We Dedicate With Appreciation*

We, the graduating class of 1973, dedicate our "Viking" to you, Mrs. Rollo. You have shown us patience and tolerance throughout our high school years. We will always appreciate what you have taught us as our teacher and advisor, even though it didn't seem so at times. Our thanks to you for preparing us for our life beyond F. H. S. We, the 1973 Seniors, dedicate this annual as a remembrance of us to you out of gratitude and admiration.

This year the paper staff consisted of fourteen young men who worked unceasingly to produce the F. H. S. Spirit twice a month. The paper contained editorials, senior sketches, sports news, and news in and around Frederick High School. Mr. Jan Raabe was the staff's advisor. Mark Nixon and Bill DesCamps served as editors.

Co-editors of the 1973 "Viking" were as follows:

- Rory Mikkonen and
- Randy Smith - Sports
- Patti Smith - Miscellaneous
- Janet Ronning - Faculty
- Sally Gustafson - Music
- Patty Pence - Activities
- Margie Fuhrman - Grades

The co-editors worked many long hours during school and at night to complete the 1973 Yearbook. They were under the supervision of Mrs. Mary Anne Nelson.

Staffs Edit Publications

The annual staff consisted of a number of Juniors and Seniors, with everyone lending a hand to make the 1973 "Viking" possible. Work on the yearbook took place during school hours and in the evening.

Administration and Faculty Regulate School Policies

Beside their regular academic classes, the F.H.A. faculty participated in many extra curricular activities.

Merri Nelson and Norman Selzle instructed junior and senior high declam which improves the student's speech.

Band and vocal, instructed by Roger Kendall and Marion Wermersen, teaches students music appreciation. Mary Anne Nelson, who is the advisor of our yearbook, has made it possible to remember the good old days.

Through the years, Bernice Rollo has turned out many promising actors and actresses. Mrs. Rollo is also in charge of the library.

Coach Ken Pudwill, head coach, was assisted by Tim Wallace and Don Quimby. Without athletics, students would not feel the sharpness of competition, the joy of victory, or the sadness of defeat. Jan Raabe coached the girls' track team and Sue Anderson was advisor of the drill team which entertained at Basketball games.

Patty and Rory Reign Over Homecoming

The Homecoming festivities began on Thursday evening, September 21, with a Pep Fest. The pep band played a number of selections, cheerleaders led cheers, Mr. Pudwill introduced the football squad for the 1972 season, and the classes presented their skits. In skit competition the Juniors received first place and the Seniors captured second place. Mark Ochsner, master of ceremonies, was always quick with a joke to liven the audience's spirits. As the evening came to a climax, the 1971 royalty, Marcia Taylor and Mitch Mikkonen, crowned Patty Pence and Rory Mikkonen to reign over the 1972 Homecoming festivities. The attendants to the King and Queen were Margie Fuhrman, Patti Smith, Sheila Sieler, Randy Smith, Jay Schlenker and Dave Jung. Crown bearers were Dana Cutler and Doug Geranen, while Honor Guards were Tracy Wolff and Kim Wermersen. Following the Pep Fest, the traditional Viking "V" was burned as a sign of our oncoming victory.

Friday arrived with more excitement. The Homecoming Parade was held at 1:30. Participating in the parade were the Hecla and Frederick marching bands, class floats, and a number of other floats and cars entered by organizations and business places. In float competition, which was based on the theme Frontier Days, the Sophomores took first place and the Freshmen captured second. In non-school competition the alumni received first.

Students Are Active In Declam

Under the direction of Mrs. Merri Nelson, four senior high students participated in declam this year. After putting in many hours of hard work, they were judged at a local contest. The winners who were Elaine Bunke, Janet Ronning, and Vickie Kotila then went to compete in the district contest which was held at Groton.

The junior high students, under the direction of Mr. Selzle, competed only in a local contest held at the St. Pauls Lutheran Church. The winners were as follows: Cathy Post-dramatics, Cindy Martilla-humorous, and Joleen Speidel-poetry.

SENIOR HIGH DECLAM: Vicki Kotila, Patty Pence, Janet Ronning, Elaine Bunke.

Senior Class Presents

On November 17, the seniors presented a three act play, Bull In A China Shop, by C. B. Gilford. The story begins in a boarding house inhabited by five sweet old ladies. They soon discover that a handsome bachelor, Detective O'Finn, lives across the street and they decide to attract his attention by arranging a homicide. O'Finn arrives with his side kick, Kramer, but because of lack of evidence, he soon leaves. The old ladies call in Jane Rogers, a WOMAN reporter who falls in love with O'Finn. Another murder is committed to lure O'Finn back and keep him interested. After a thorough investigation, Miss Hildegard is arrested for the deaths of the old maids. Dennis O'Finn quits homicide and changes to arson only to find his first case is a fire at a boarding house for old ladies. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Bernice Rollo.

Snow Queen Heads Winter Festivities

On November 10, Debbie Larson crowned Patty Pence the 1973 Snow Queen. Patty represented Frederick at the annual Snow Queen Contest in Aberdeen. Margie Fuhrman received the honor of runner-up. The following girls competed for the title: Karla Schaunaman, Patty Pence, Sheila Sieler, Elaine Bunke, Sheila Forsting, Sally Gustafson, Margie Fuhrman, Patti Smith, Janet Ronning, Terry Voeller, and Yvonne Podoll. The Snow Queen Contest was sponsored by the A. B. C. Extension Club. Entertainment for the evening consisted of a number of singing groups, declam readings, and organ music provided by Janet Ronning and Marion Wermersen. Bill DesCamps acted as Master of Ceremonies and kept the audience entertained with his humor. The same evening, Patty Rahja, the 1972 Jr. Snow Queen, passed her crown on to Colleen Taylor. Colleen participated in the Jr. Snow Queen Contest in Aberdeen.

The evening came to an end with the unveiling of "Frosty", better known as Connie Bakken.

Vikings Return To 8-Man Football

The Frederick Vikings had a successful season despite their losing record of 3-5.

The mighty Vikings won the season opener by stomping Rosholt 32-0. Their next game proved to be a defeat by Conde in a 32-0 shutout. The Vikes picked up their second victory in a successful homecoming game by defeating New Effington 54-20. They then traveled to Warner and were defeated in a very physical game by a score of 14-12. The Frederick Vikings had a touchdown called back in the fourth quarter. In the sixth game of the season, the Vikings played the Bristol Pirates with Bristol winning by a score of 28-20. Then the Vikings traveled to Langford to play the Lions. They defeated our squad 36-24. The Vikings closed out the season with a home game, defeating the Hecla Rockets by a score of 14-6.

Vikings Complete Rebuilding Year

The Vikings completed a good rebuilding year at 7 and 15. After losing the first 6 games the Vikings came back to win the next 7 out of 16 games and tie for fourth place in the Lake Region Conference.

The only senior regular was Rory Mikkonen but seniors Rich Maunu, Randy Smith, and Jay Schlenker gave the Vikes valuable bench strength.

Juniors who started for the varsity were Mark Ochsner and Kim Wermersen with John Hieb coming off the bench to carry some of the load.

The Vikings two other starters were sophomores Dave DeMarce and Dean Marske.

Rory Mikkonen was named to the Lake Region All-Stars with Dean Marske receiving honorable mention.

Leading scorers for the Vikings were as follows: Dean Marske-333, Rory Mikkonen-208, Dave DeMarce-172, Mark Ochsner-141, Kim Wermersen-103, Richie Maunu-43, and Randy Smith-37.

Frederick's top rebounders were Dean Marske with 219, Dave DeMarce collected 179, Mark Ochsner grabbed 100, Kim Wermersen and Rory Mikkonen had 77 and 50 respectively.

The Viking "B" team had a good year with an 11 and 10 season and took the consolation trophy in the Eureka Invitational Tournament.

The leading scorers for the bomber squad were as follows: John Hieb-149, Tom Mahlke and Rick Wermersen-117, and Dave Peldo and Curt Christianson with 93 and 90 respectively.

Track Captains

Co-Captains: Bill DesCamps and Randy Smith

The boys track team had a successful season this year, bringing home second place honors in both the conference and regional track meets. Randy Smith, Bill DeCamps, Kurt Smith, and Dean Marske attended the state track meet. Dean qualified in the low hurdles, Bill DesCamps in the discus, Kurt Smith in the discus and shot, and Randy Smith in the low hurdles, high hurdles, pole vault, and the 220.

The State Track Meet was held in Mitchell on a muddy track, May 25 and 26. Randy Smith placed first in the low hurdles, second in the high hurdles and pole vault, and third in the 220. Kurt Smith placed fifth in the discus and shot put with Bill DesCamp placing second in the discus.

Randy Smith led the team in points gained with 167, Kurt Smith had 70, Dean Marske had 48, Jay Schlenker had 31, Wayne Jarvi had 31, Bill DesCamps had 28, and Daryl Fuhrman had 20. These do not include points earned in the state meet.

This year the Frederick Viking Track Team had seven qualifiers for the Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame is a set of standards set for each event. An athlete must equal this standard or better it to get his name in the Hall of Fame. He must be a senior before he gets his name in the Hall of Fame. Qualifiers for the Hall of Fame were led by Randy Smith. Randy qualified in the high hurdles (15.3), low hurdles (20.0), pole vault (11'10"), establishing school recognition in all three, and the 100 yard dash in 10.5 and the 440 yd. relay team (47.7). Jay Schlenker qualified in the shot put (47'2") and discus (134'7"). Bill DesCamps qualified in the discus (147'7"). Kurt Smith was the only junior qualifier and he qualified in the shot put (47'9½") and discus (157'1") which was a new school record. Two sophomores and one freshman round out the Hall of Fame for 1973. They were Dean Marske in the high hurdles (16.2), low hurdles (21.2), and the 440 yd. relay (47.7), Wayne Jarvi joined Dean in the 440 yd. relay (47.7). The only freshman to make the Hall of Fame was Daryl Fuhrman. Daryl made the Hall of Fame in the pole vault (10'6") and 440 yd. relay (47.7).

Girls Qualify for State

The Fredrick Girls' Track Team, under Coach Raabe, had a very successful season this year. Going to State were Colleen Taylor in the 100; the 440 relay consisting of Taylor, Tracy Lahr, Leesa and Lynn Rystrom; the 880 relay team consisting of Tracie Wolff, Tracy Lahr, Lynne Rystrom and Colleen Taylor; the mile relay, including Linda Forsting, Charlene Hart, Cathy Achen and Pearl Schaunaman; and Laura Forsting in the 880.

Colleen pulled down a third in the 100, and the 440 and 880 relay teams received fourth and fifth respectively in the state.

Highlights of the season were championships in the Lake Region Conference, the Eureka Invitational, and the Britton Invitational. The Viking Girls finished no lower than fourth in any meet preceding the State Meet. New records were established in all but two events.

Colleen Taylor was chosen most valuable track star for the second consecutive year.
