

THE EIGHTH

VIKINGS

FHS

1988 VIKING

We, the Senior Class of 1988, have dared to be different. During our years at FHS, we have accomplished many goals in athletics and academics by pulling muscles and straining our brains. We have broken tradition in our hard efforts to make a new and better image for ourselves and for our school. We have taken our memories but have left our reputations so the spirit of the Class of 1988 will remain in the hearts and halls of FHS for years to come. Now we will be graduating and leaving our footsteps behind and we will-to-all the ability to follow in them. As you page through the Viking, keep in mind that we are the Class of Nineteen Eighty-Eight and we are different.

Table of Contents

Academics	3
Album	15
Athletics	29
Activities	39
Index	56

Volume 35

Published By:
Yearbook Staff

Tri-Editors: Catrina Crawford,
Louise Hoerner, and
Tammie Mullner

Asst. Editor: Crystal Cox

Advisor: Mrs. Sue Maunu

Frederick High School
Frederick, S.D. 57441

DEDICATION

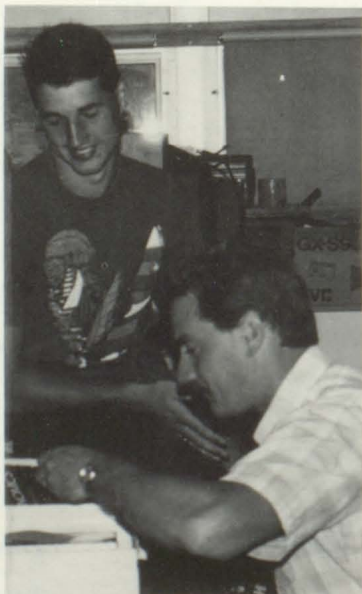

We, the Senior Class of 1988, dedicate our Viking to a person who has been supporting throughout our high school years, who has instilled in us the will to believe in ourselves and the people around us, and who has always told us to respect ourselves and feel good about ourselves no matter what anyone else thought. This person has helped our class and each of us individually in many ways, and when the times were 'tough', this person was 'tougher'. So, to you, Mr. Oster, we dedicate our 1988 Viking with pride, honor, respect, and a great deal of thanks.

UPPER RIGHT: The Senior Class of 1988, from top stair to bottom stair, is Tam-mie Mullner, Kevin Ham, Crystal Cox, Andy Olson, Amy Gerlach, Jason Maunu, Catrina Crawford, Les Huettl, Louise Hoerner, Roger Jung, Darcy Sieber, and Mr. Tom Oster, recipient of the dedicated Viking. Not pictured; James Huettl. RIGHT: At Awards Night, Mr. Oster is presented with a plaque by Senior class officers, Catrina, Louise, and Tammie. BELOW: Les, Roger, and Jason listen intently as Mr. Oster goes over football stats with them. BELOW MIDDLE: Les shares a laugh with Mr. Oster.

BELOW: Mr. Oster tries not to laugh as Tammie gives him some corn and a box of matches and tells him to 'use them feasably.'

RE-ELECT OSTER
FOR
BROWN COUNTY
COMMISSIONER!!

W E I G H T Y

ACADEMICS

Head Chef Creations

Elm Valley schools are by no means boring, mainly because of the unique and openminded ideas of the administration.

Since our superintendent, Leighton "The Great One" Getty likes to cook, we have delighted in giving him the head chef position of our schools.

Our school board, Karen Gunther, Kenneth Ham, Butch Podoll, Martin Ronning, and John Sumption come from many walks of life. With their vast experience they are able to advise Mr. Getty on many flavorful dishes.

Ruth Ylitalo, the High School secretary, is our walking recipe card. She can always tell us the who, what, when, where, and how of things.

Next in our cooking process is our financial officer, Sharon Bain. On her trusty computer, she keeps track of how much we spend on our ingredients and makes sure our pots don't overflow.

Coralie Maunu, the school librarian, makes sure our meals never get bland. She supplies Mr. Getty with a never ending supply of cookbooks.

When the students complete the elementary baking process, they are sent to the high school. Here, Mr. Hensen, our principal and also a professional taster analyzes and adds the final spices. The final product is an FHS student ready for the world!

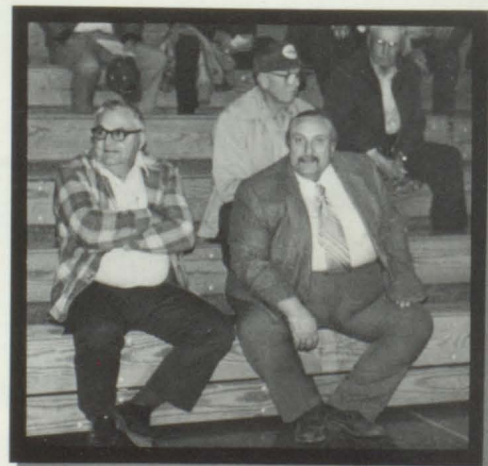

ABOVE: Sharon Bain has found sufficient funds to try a new recipe.

BOTTOM: Ruth Ylitalo has recieved the money for our cooking endeavor.

ABOVE: The Elm Valley school board members, our recipe selectors, are: Kenneth Ham, Butch Podoll, Martin Ronning, Karen Gunther, and John Sumption.

ABOVE: The "head chef", Mr. Getty and our "professional taster", Mr. Jensen are caught sampling our B.B. stew.

ABOVE: Bob and Dorothy Smith new comers to the janitorial world, take time out to relax in the lobby. BELOW: Veteran cook, Marv Luoma kneads bread dough to make into buns, while, rookie, Til Braa folds towel after doing dishes.

Maintenance Sees New Faces

This year when the FHS students came back to school two familiar faces didn't greet them as usual. Everett Suurmeyer, who cleaned up after the messy student body for many years, and Ruth Fisher, who flipped burgers for the hungry students, had retired from their services in the spring of 1987. Instead, two new faces appeared on the scene, armed with Mr. Clean and Hamburger Helper. Bob and Dorothy Smith were hired as the janitors in Frederick. Til Braa was hired to assist returning cook Marv Luoma. Todd Voeller continued to beat rugs and scrub floors in Barnard, while Cozy Stoddard and JoAnn Derry brewed stew for the elementary children.

Even with all the excitement of new people at FHS, four familiar faces returned to take students to and from school everyday. Mac and Carol McCulloch, Clem Braa, and Brenda Emery got up bright and early every morning to make their daily bus routes driving for the Elm Valley School District. Mac drives the route in and around Westport, Carol takes the rural Barnard route, while Clem and Brenda drive the rural Frederick routes. Clem is responsible for transporting the vocational students to and from Aberdeen. All of the drivers took turns driving players, cheerleaders, statisticians, and sometimes fans to basketball and football games, as well as track meets. When asked, all of the drivers said they liked their job and are glad to be of service to the students.

LEFT: "Don't be scared Clem, I'll protect you!" was Mac McCulloch's expression as Clem Braa held on to him for dear life. What must Carol McCulloch and Brenda Emery be thinking???

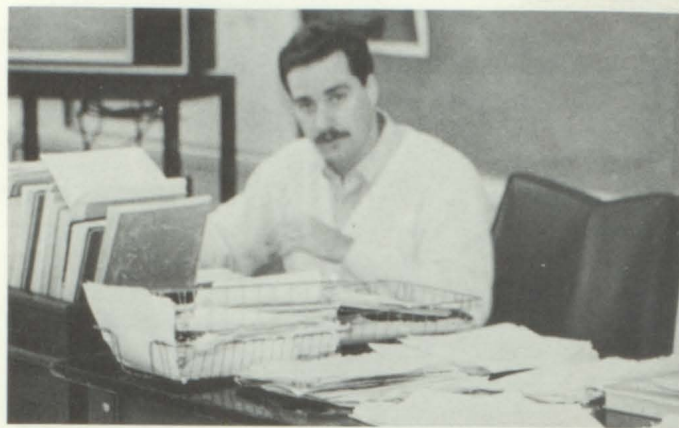

Vote Oster

Do what?? Vote for Oster? What for? Senator, Governor, President? Wait a minute, who is this guy? 'This guy' happens to be Tom Oster, teacher, coach, Brown County Commissioner, and family man.

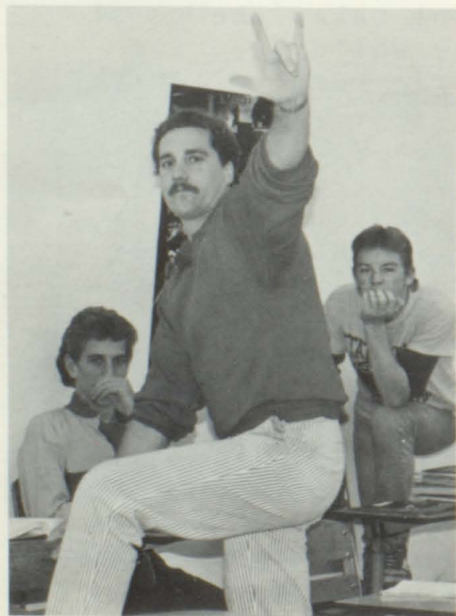

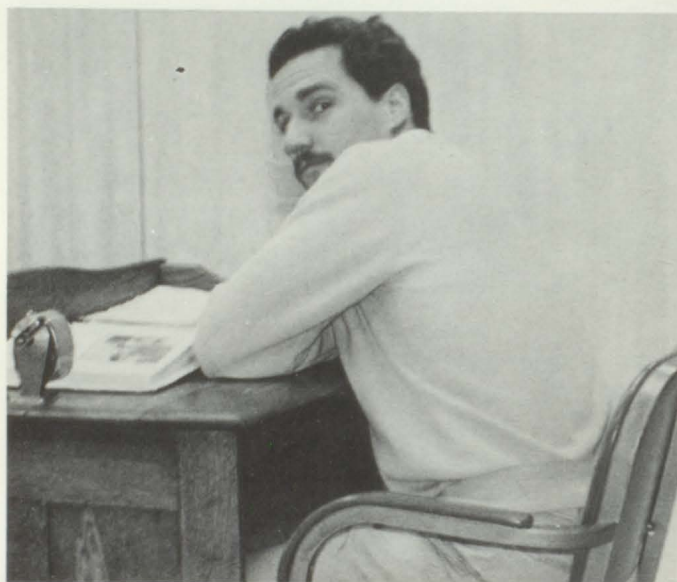

Mr. Oster teaches World Geography to the 7th graders and freshmen; U.S. History to the Juniors; and psychology/sociology and American Government to the Seniors. He accompanied the Seniors to Pierre to tour the State Capitol and sparked their interest in national government by having them do a term paper on a presidential candidate. And, in all fairness to students of both political parties, he did it the democratic way--they drew names out of a box.

Outside of his school obligations, Mr. Oster hosts the Northstar Football Camp during the summer. In his spare time he likes to play city league basketball and be with his wife, Lori, and their two children, Tiffany and Matthew.

Mr. Oster is also Chairman of the Brown County Commission and has recently announced that he plans to seek re-election. Good luck, Mr. Oster!!!

ABOVE: You guys, I just don't remember!
BELOW: A little under the weather, Mr. Oster? Haven't we had our daily candy bar yet???

FAR
LEFT:
Mr.
Oster
demonstrates his new campaign slogan.
LEFT:
A suit,
Mr.
Oster?

What's
the special occasion? RIGHT:
Hey, Mrs. E., who's going to get it? HA! Wouldn't you like to know!

On the Inside Looking Out

From inside the aquarium we looked out into the science room to find that there was much activity. First, we saw Mrs. Roberta Eisenbeisz advising both the Senior class and the drill team. Her days seemed to be full with a study hall and three different science classes to teach.

How odd, she taught one class twice a day to different students. What class could that be? They did experiments with color and some with chemicals. It had to be Physical Science.

Anatomy, lets see what class could that be? Physiology, of course. They learned most of the bones and muscles. Seeing cadavers and dissecting fetal pigs let them get an idea of the location and size of some of the different organs.

Next came the study of us and other animals, too. Disecting a grasshopper, an earthworm, a perch, a starfish, a clam, a frog, and a crayfish seemed to be the highlights of the Biology class. Oh no, more of us than we thought!

UPPER LEFT: Mrs. Eisenbeisz shows the rest of the class an organ from the animal Ann Rohwedder is disecting. MIDDLE LEFT: Mrs. Eisenbeisz looks over her notes before Physiology class. LEFT: Mrs. Eisenbeisz gives a quiz to her Physical Science class. ABOVE: Water life was a new addition to the science room this year, in a 55 gallon salt-water aquarium.

New Library and Pep Club Added

We have a new face
 In English this year
 Though she can be tough
 She's really a dear

To Northern State
 She went four years
 Now she came to us
 To teach some cheers

She teaches us English
 Spanish and more
 And always gets
 Right down to the core

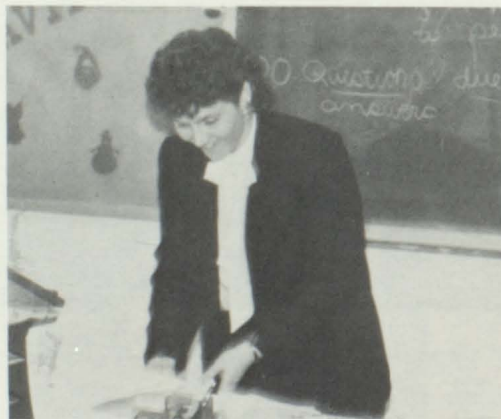

In the school play
 She'll receive an encore
 And have the audience
 Rolling on the floor

There are two clubs founded
 Called library and pep
 And for our little school
 It's really quite a step

In case you haven't guessed yet
 Merry Duerre is her name
 And teaching English
 Is her game

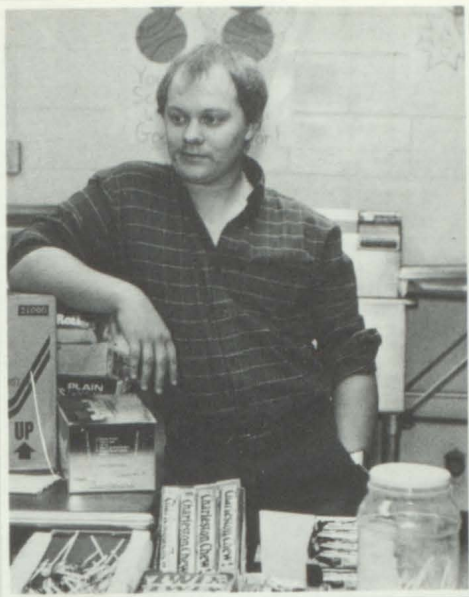

ABOVE: Robin Smith threatens Stacy Bender with clay-covered hands while they made pinatas for the Spanish party at Barnard with the fourth grade. RIGHT: Miss Duerre with a smile on her face gathers test papers that will be handed out later in the hour.

UPPER RIGHT: After listening to the sophomores speeches Miss Duerre returns to her desk to finish her evaluations.

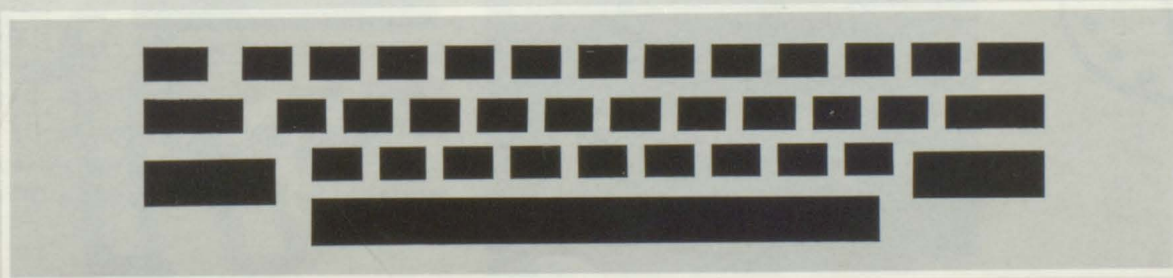

ABOVE: Shelia Napton swings from left to right failing to break the pinata which was made by the Spanish class and filled with candy.

ABOVE: Mr. Berg supervises while the Juniors take over the concession stand. "Hey you! Put those candy bars back!" BELOW: Mr. Berg looks anything but happy in Algebra I. Maybe his class was "goofing" again! LOWER RIGHT: Mr. Berg shows his students how to tackle the "Computer Age".

List: Mr. Berg

- 10 PRINT "Computer and Math teacher."
- 20 PRINT "Returned to FHS for a second year."
- 30 PRINT "Classes: Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II, Computer, and Eighth Grade Math."
- 40 PRINT "Reasons for teaching: Likes working with young people and the summer vacation."
- 50 PRINT "Other duties as a teacher: Assistant boys basketball coach and Junior class advisor."
- 60 PRINT "Why basketball?: It's fun seeing the kids strive to reach their potential."
- 70 PRINT "Hobbies: Hunting and fishing."
- 80 PRINT "Special computer projects: Printing out a school newspaper, including various news and the latest gossip around FHS."
- 90 PRINT "GOTO pictures."

Know Your Season

New to the Frederick High School in the home economics and art department was Mrs. Teresa Schanzenbach who formerly taught at Crow Creek Reservation High School.

One of the units her Home Ec. I students learned about was food and nutrition. During the Christmas holiday season the work surrounded their fellow students with mouth-watering smells of peppermint taffy, fudge, peanut brittle, and gingerbread. The seventh grade experienced pulling taffy, while the sophomore girls planned and created gingerbread houses.

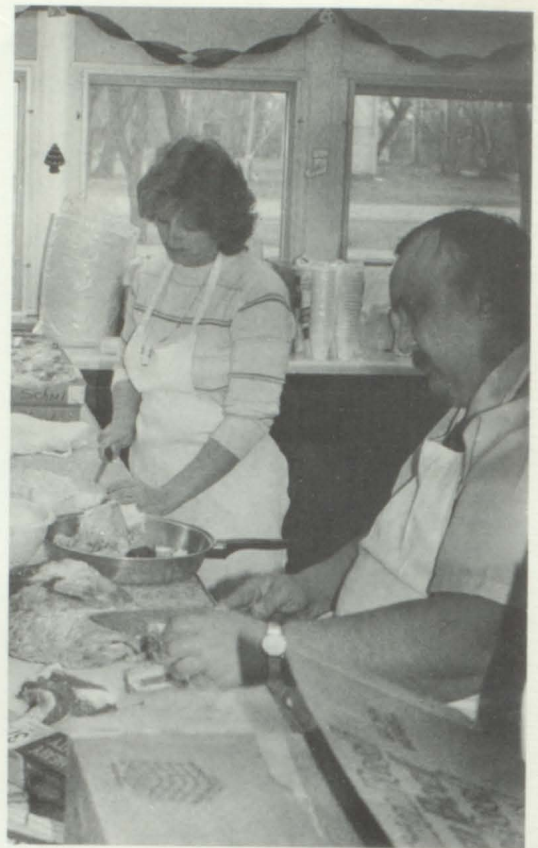

Mrs. Schanzenbach took the sophomore girls on a field trip to the Vo-Tech school in Watertown, where they each received a color analysis. What is your season girls?

One requirement of the childcare unit for the sophomores was to use a ten pound bag of sugar as a pretend child. The child's constant attention was required for one week. Many laughs echoed the halls of FHS as the girls completed their motherly tasks.

Along with teaching, Mrs. Schanzenbach is a busy mother herself with two children, Sarah and Jesse.

Although Mrs. Schanzenbach's schedule prevents her from having much time to herself, she listens to music and does counted cross stitch if possible.

She remembers what it was like to be a student herself, and keeps that in mind when planning activities for her students.

ABOVE: Mr. Getty carries on the tradition of helping to prepare another class supper-- this time swiss steak and all the trimmings. LEFT: Mrs. Schanzenbach demonstrates the final sanding of the art sculpture.

LEFT: Mrs. Schanzenbach lends a helping hand to fixsome of the cave-in's on the gingerbread houses by the sophomore girls.

Helping People is Their Goal

Mrs. Sharon Heisinger cheerfully returned to the Elm Valley School District as the school counselor. She conducted class activities to help students develop positive self-images, and learn to get along with all peers, family, and elders. Mrs. Heisinger helped junior and senior students with career planning and college-prep testing.

"I chose counseling because I enjoy helping people," said Mrs. Heisinger. In her spare time she enjoys reading, working on the computer, and relaxing with her husband and two sons in their spacious Aberdeen home.

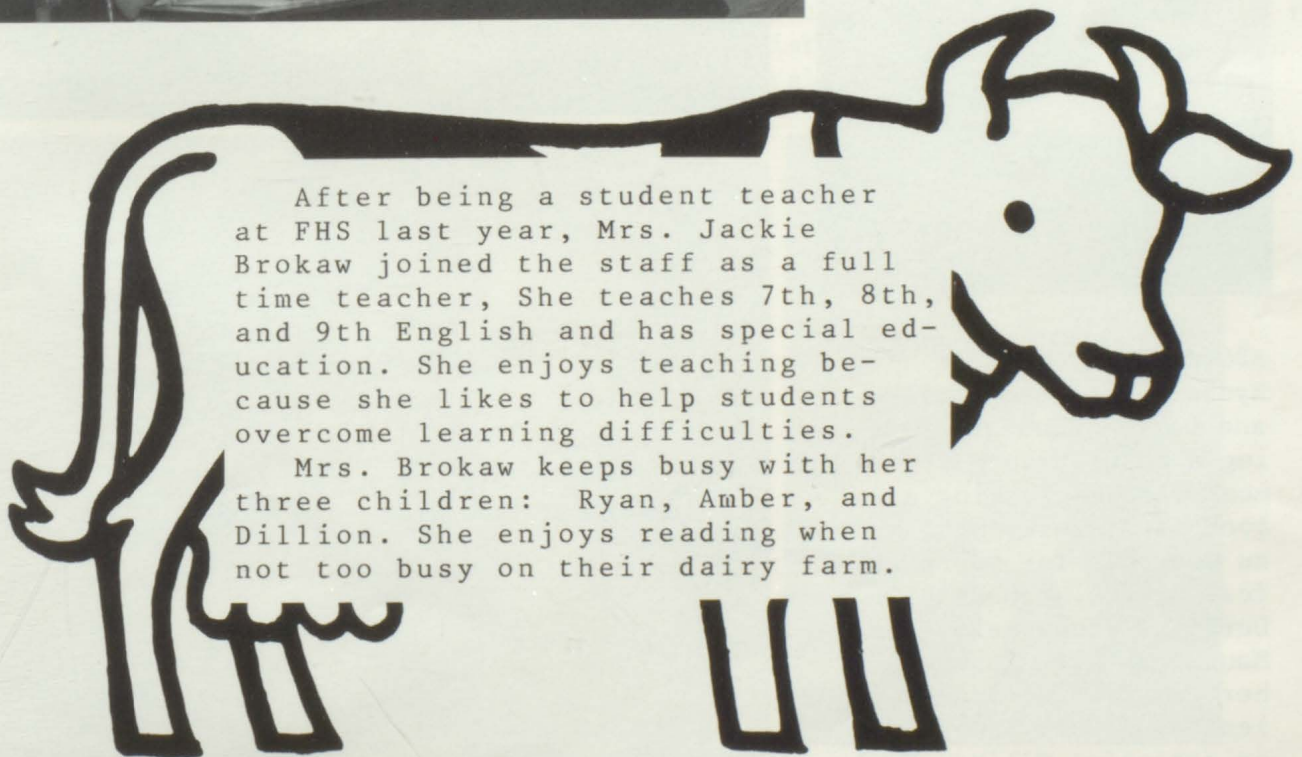

ABOVE: Mrs. Heisinger is preparing to help the seniors properly fill out their financial aid forms. LEFT: Mrs. Brokaw hands out a study guide over one of the novels the freshmen class read to fulfill their English requirement.

After being a student teacher at FHS last year, Mrs. Jackie Brokaw joined the staff as a full time teacher. She teaches 7th, 8th, and 9th English and has special education. She enjoys teaching because she likes to help students overcome learning difficulties.

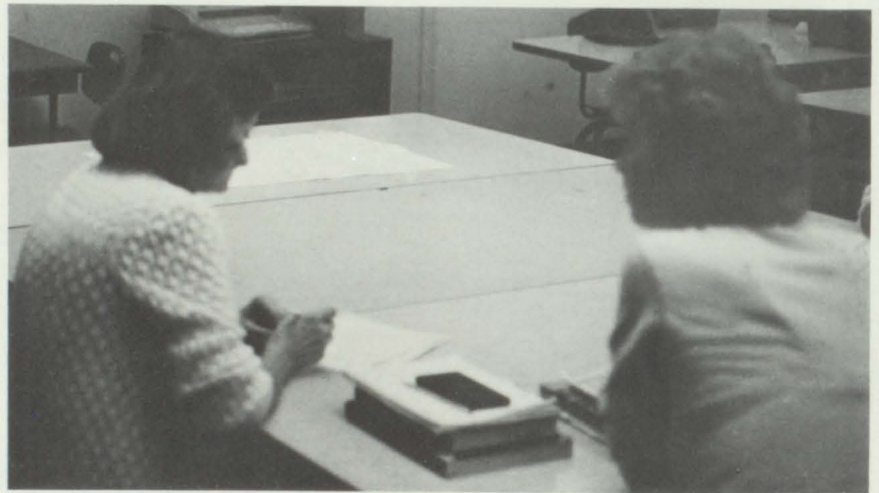

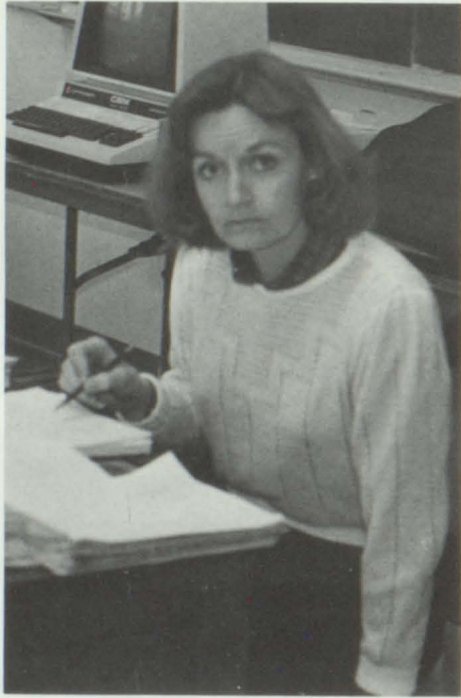

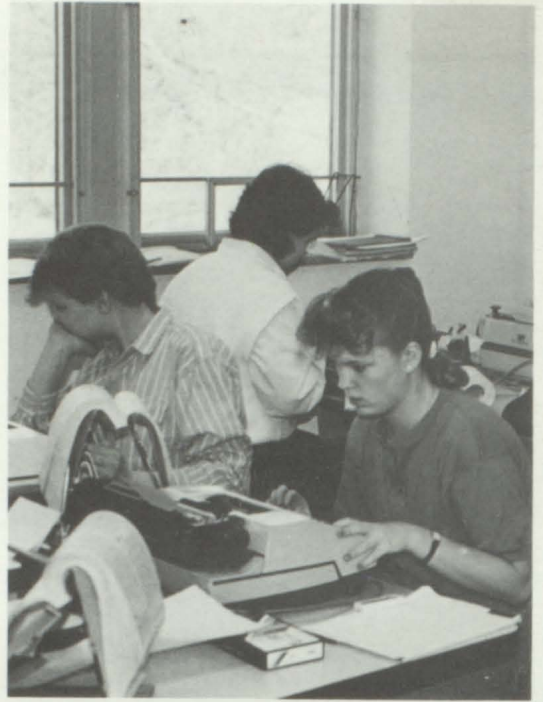

Mrs. Brokaw keeps busy with her three children: Ryan, Amber, and Dillion. She enjoys reading when not too busy on their dairy farm.

Business Continues

What to our wondering eyes appears, but the same business teacher who's come back for another year.

Sue Maunu is juggling a full schedule again this year. Her day consists of teaching Accounting I and II, Three math classes, and Freshmen typing. Every year she teaches the basics of typing and helps them get through their first year of high school. Mrs. Maunu is also editor in chief of this year's annual. Three Seniors: Catrina Crawford, Louise Hoerner, and Tammie Mullner are her Fri-editors. They teach everyone the ropes. In her spare time she, her husband, and their son manage a small ranch.

ABOVE RIGHT: Michele Rydberg, Kirsten Barton, and Darcy Maunu are typing a tabulation assignment. ABOVE: Wearing a look of disgust, Mrs. Maunu searches for typographical errors. MIDDLE RIGHT: During a study hall, Bonita Maunu has Mrs. Maunu help her complete an accounting lesson. RIGHT: Mrs. Maunu is assisting Milissa Paul on an accounting problem.

Learning a Trade

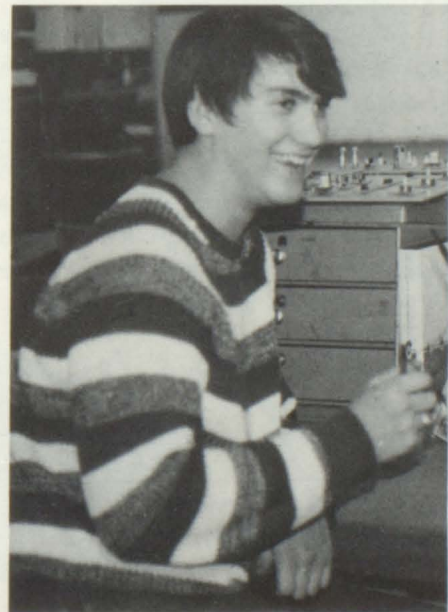

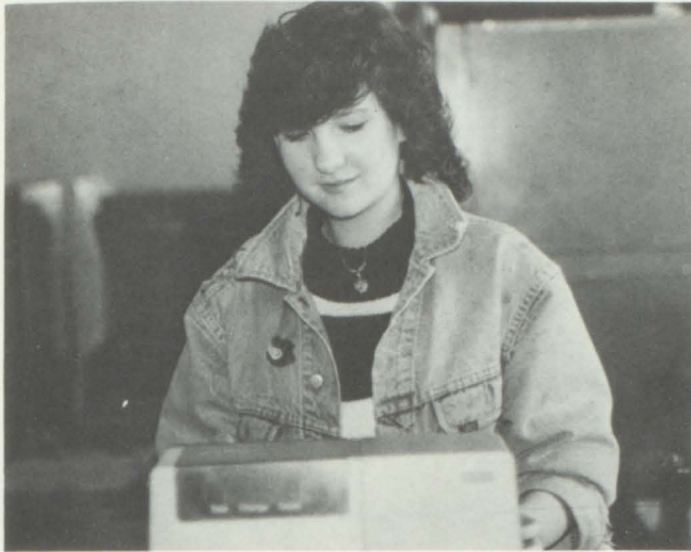

WHAT IS VOCATIONAL?

V I C A C L U B

O n the job training
C areer decision making
A berdeen, SD
T raining for trade school
I deas in technology
O ver thirty classes offered
N ational Skills Contest
A pprenticeship
L earning

Everyday at 12:40 the Hub-Area Vocational students boarded the bus driven by Clem Braa. Classes started at 1:15 and ended at 3:00. There were six classes attended by the Frederick High students including Auto Mechanics (2), Electronics (2), Building Trades (4), Machine Shop (5), Office Occupations (1), and Commercial Foods (1). These classes proved to be educational mainly because of the hands-on experience they offered.

LOWER RIGHT: Kevin Barton is working on an electrical board. LOWER LEFT: Jason Maun, Andy Olson, and Pat Kinslow are welding. UPPER LEFT: Michele Mardian is running the cash register. MIDDLE LEFT: Amy Gerlach and Crystal Cox are using a sun scope.

Log Date: 1987-88

Frederick High School—the final frontier. This is the voyage of Mr. Brad Jones, teacher and coach. His on-going mission: to teach 8th grade health and civics, 10th grade world history, 7th and 8th grade P.E. and to coach girls and boys basketball. He has boldly gone where few men have gone before—second round of the Girls District Basketball Tournament. Good job Mr. Jones! Mr. Jones lives in the town of Frederick, not on the Starship Enterprise. He "moved up" in the world. Seven miles up, to be exact, for last year he taught at Barnard.

ABOVE: What's this? Is Mr. Jones captured by the "Cling-On's"? RIGHT: "Beam me up, Scotty" was how we interpreted this expression.

Newsflash

We interrupt this page for a special news bulletin:

Frederick's very own Roger Kendall, who has been with the Elm-Valley school system for 32 years, has returned to help us for another year.

Mr. Kendall currently teaches 7th grade life science, 8th grade earth science, and supervises a study hall. He works hard to help his students understand how science is associated with every day life. He uses good discipline to improve student behavior even keeping your feet off the desk.

Besides teaching, Mr. Kendall enjoys painting, music composition, and handing out boxes of Milk Duds to certain students.

Stay tuned to this book for further updates.

UPPER RIGHT: Mr. Kendall supervises first hour study hall each day.

ABOVE: Mr. Kendall and Mr. Jones chat.

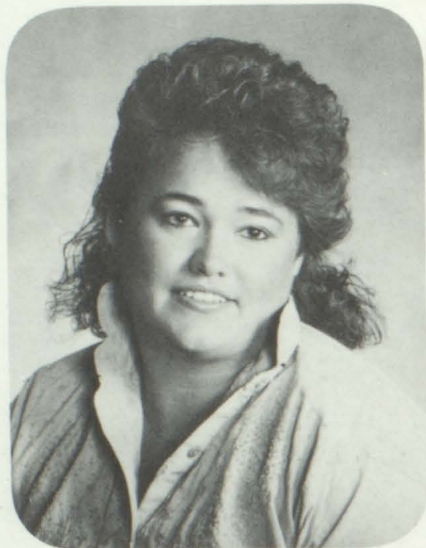

E - I - G H T Y

REVENGE

ALBUM

*Crystal Lynn
Cox*

Ri'al
"Party Time!"

*Catrina Lynn
Crawford*

Catrina and the Waves
"Check it out!"

Class of

'88

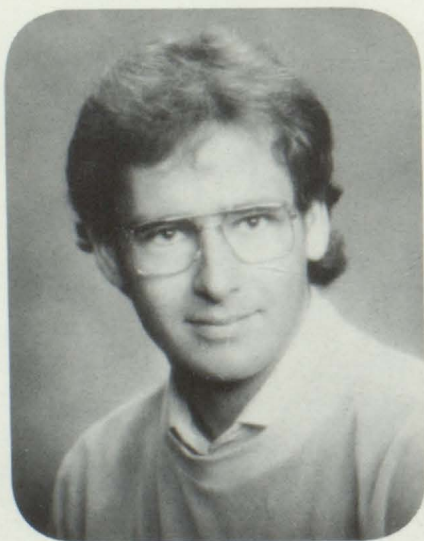

Not pictured:

*James Robert
Huettl*

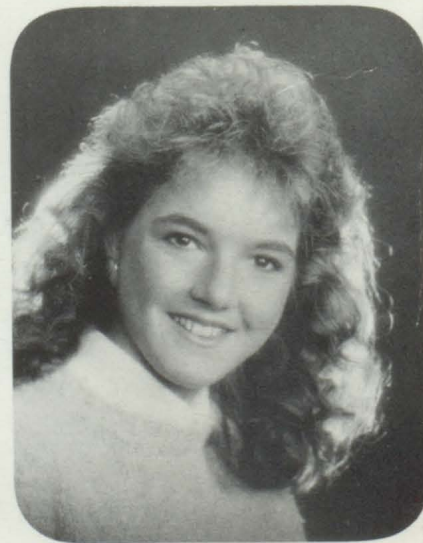

*Amy
Marie
Gerlach*

Aim
"Look out for me!"

*Kevin Gene
Ham*

Farmer
"Don't worry about it."

*Louise Grace
Hoerner*

Weezer
"Havin' fun yet?"

Leslie Michael Huettl

Lester
"Yeah! Right!"

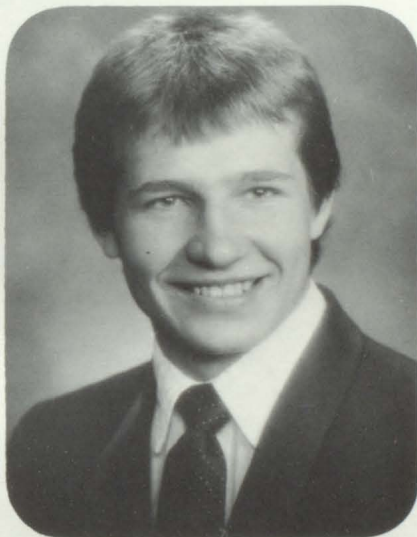

*Roger Henry
Jung*

Scrogge
"'Stuff' happens!"

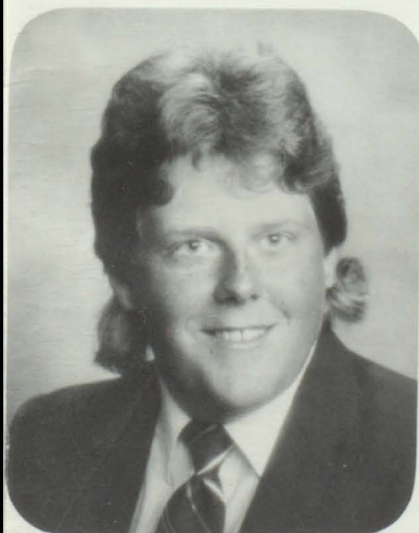

*Jason
Henry
Maunu*

Beaver
"I don't know and I don't care."

*Tammie
Lynn
Mullner*

Blondie
"I hate it when that happens!"

*Andrew James
Olson*

Drew
"Me neither!"

*Darcy Lea
Sieber*

Darce
"Yuk Fu"

THE SENIORS

If they only knew.

Go ahead. Make my day!!

Let me think about it.

I'm ready to PARTY!!!!!!!

Hey Dude!

Space Case!

I don't feel so good!!

I'm so thrilled!! I NEVER!

Well, I don't remember.

Don't Distract there? Me!!

Who's

So you caught me, okay?

Peek-A-Boo!

Let's Kill 'Em!

Who's that wink meant for?

Sure you did!!!!!

Are we cool, or what? Real Funny!

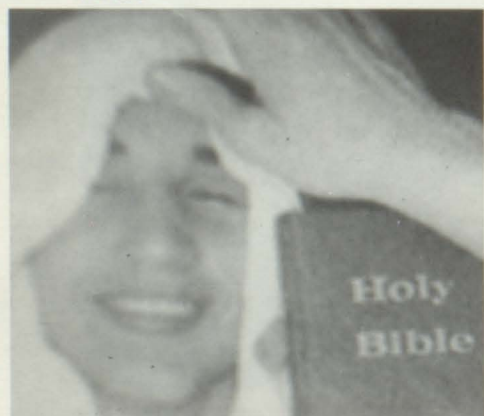

WILD & CRAZY GUYS!

What!

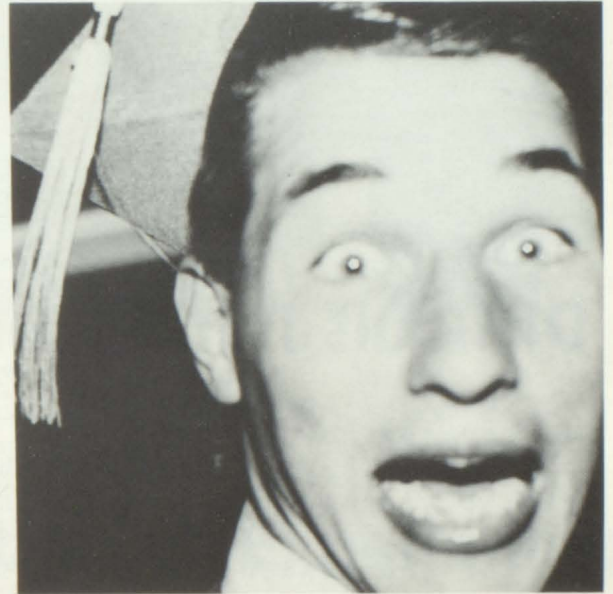

Devil in Disguise!

THE CLASS OF 1988

The seniors are all smiles after they've received their diplomas.

Graduation is a scary thought for all, but as you can see it was quite frightening for Les.

The seniors have mixed emotions about walking down that long aisle.

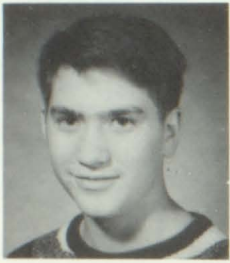

The girls are double checking to see if everything is just right.

Nervous thoughts and visions are filling these seniors heads.

Cloud nine is what the seniors were on May 22, 1988, as the time approached when they received their diplomas. The day was filled with excitement for all as Steve Cutler, South Dakota's state representative, addressed the seniors, their friends, and families. As he began to tell everyone to enjoy life and keep a positive attitude and you will thrive in life.

Kevin Barton
Stacy Bender
Travis Cruse
Tom Gunther

JUNIORS

Sandy Jung
Pat Kinslow
Geraldine Klipfel
Peter Lahr

Difficult Junior Year

This year eighteen students discovered how hard it is to be a Junior. They started off the year trying to find someone to work two long, grueling hours in the concession stand. This seemed to be a difficult sacrifice for some of the junior class members, but someone had to do it. The money earned from this and a delicious swiss steak supper all went towards paying for the Junior-Senior Prom.

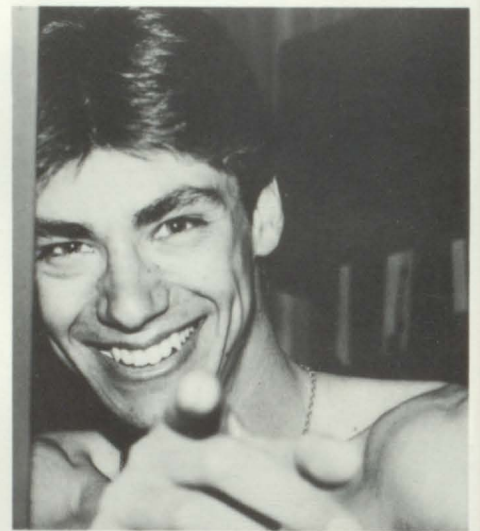

Prom was also a very time-consuming project, but in the end, all who attended enjoyed a lovely evening and the Junior class stood tall, anticipating what could be the best senior year anyone could ever have.

Michelle Mardian

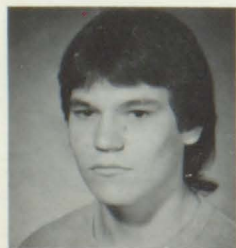

Bonita Maunu

ABOVE: Mike Strand saying, "I WANT YOU!"

Milissa Paul
Darin Podoll
Jo Rohwedder
Brad Ronning

Mike Rouse
Justin Scepaniak
Robin Smith
Mike Strand

The sophomore students are BACK ROW: Justin Torrence, Shannon Witte, Gary Ellsworth, David Gunther, Stephen Catlette, Chris Sumption, Mike Wilson, Joel Campbell, and Mark Scepaniak.

FRONT ROW: Clarissa Napton, RockKell Ham, Sandy Huettl, Ann Rohwedder, Georgie-Ann Hoerner, and Tricia Maunu. Not pictured: Mishel Burger and Jamie Voeller.

Unique Experiences

The sophomore class had a chance to experience unique activities in biology, computer, and art classes. They dissected worms, fish, and frogs in biology, created a school paper in computer, and completed a variety of projects including oil painting in art. They were creative with their viking ship for the homecoming skit and took first place with their float.

Several of them got their drivers license this year. Some took that privilege to earn their first speeding or exhibition driving tickets.

UPPER LEFT: Shown with their oil paintings are Mark Scepaniak, Ann Rohwedder, GeorgieAnn Hoerner, and Tricia Maunu. LEFT: With paintings are Shannon Witte, Mike Wilson, Stephen Catlette, and Gary Ellsworth.

ABOVE: Freshmen, BACK ROW: Amy Nixon, Michele Rydberg, Deserae Smith, Darcy Maunu, Becky Sumption, Stacey Braa, and Kirsten Barton. FRONT: Randy Huettl, Bert Klipfel, Paul Maunu, Ralph Wallace, Eric Sumption, Dan Nickelson, and Dillon Cutler.

New Faces Initiated

Fourteen giggling new faces entered the doors to liven up the "87-88" school year. They had one week to settle into their new routine. Then initiation day came and they were singled out and somewhat humiliated as they were auctioned off as slaves for a day.

They all participated in at least one of the traditional activities. All seven girls competed in the Jr. Snow Queen contest, with Darcy Maunu tearfully accepting the crown and title.

TOP: The freshmen listen intently, watch the board, and take notes during Algebra I class. ABOVE: Deserae Smith, Becky Sumption, Michele Rydberg, Kirsten Barton, and Darcy Maunu patiently complete a lesson.

Shown with science projects are BELOW: Stephanie Myhre, Tammy Clifford, Tammy Huettl, and Dawn Pehl. LOWER LEFT: Shane Storm, Vince Olson, Darnell Witte, and Eric Kinslow. LOWER RIGHT: John Maunu, Joel Sumption and Mark Sumption.

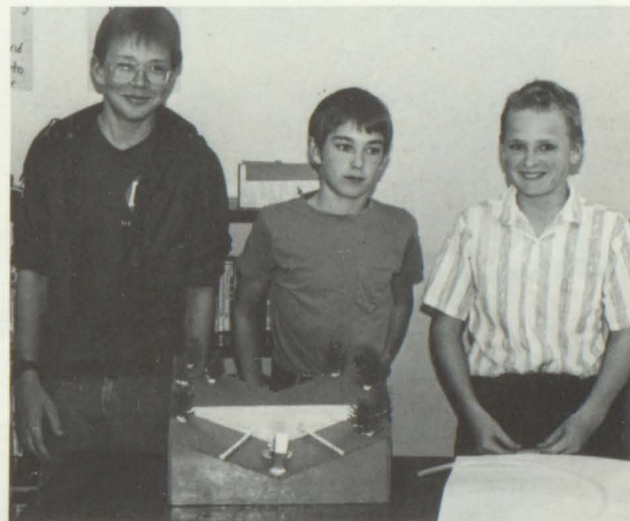

Special Projects

The eighth grade students had little trouble making adjustments to schedules or arrangements of the junior high move to Frederick.

They had a new student, Dawn Reyelts for the first semester and Stephanie Myhre joined them the second semester.

They participated in all the activities they were allowed. They completed some detailed science projects for Mr. Kendall, and weekly enjoyed News Trivia with Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones took them on a field trip to the water filtration plant, Wylie Park, and the YMCA in Aberdeen.

The members of the eighth grade class are: BACK ROW: Mark Sumption, Vince Olson, Joel Sumption, Shane Storm, Eric Kinslow, John Maunu, Darnell Witte, and Scott Plummer. FRONT ROW: Dawn Pehl, Tammy Huettl, Dawn Reyelts, and Tammy Clifford.

FRONT ROW: Stephanie Paul, Reed Mahlke, Carla Sumption, Lynette Huettl, and Tara Bunke.

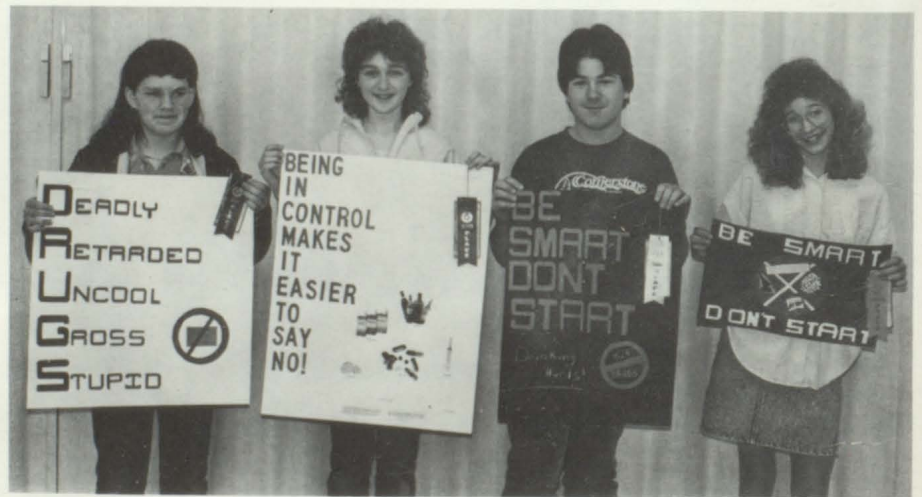

The seventh grade members are: BACK ROW: Janel McLaughlin, Ryan Bakeberg, Cheryl Gage, Tom Rexinger, and LeAnne Maunu.

Adjustments

The ten seventh graders had some adjustments to make besides being in junior high. The junior high was moved from the Barnard center to Frederick. The seventh graders shared the music room with the eighth grade. Most of the time it worked out without too much disruption from either class.

Also new to this years seventh grade was the opportunity to take a home economics class. They studied several units all dealing with practical living skills.

With only three boys in the class they were somewhat handicapped when it came to participating in sports. They did give their efforts to football, basketball, and track. The girls participated in basketball and track.

The students with their winning science posters are: Carla Sumption, blue ribbon, Cheryl Gage, purple ribbon, Tom Rexinger, white ribbon, and Stephanie Paul, red ribbon. The students made the posters to help prevent the use of drugs. Mr. Kendall was their instructor for the project.

A Travel Through Middle School

As a visitor to the Barnard Elementary School I searched for the fifth and sixth graders who were missing from their class rooms. From the top of the stairs I heard voices in the gym. So I followed my instincts and opened the gym door. To my suprise I found Dacey, Wyatt, Glen, Katie, Travis, Dustin, Miah, and Sara D., performing mimes.

Smelling the scent of freshly baked bread I went into the hall and found Sara S., Tanya, Jessica, Jodi, and Beth selling baked goods.

Going outside I saw Mandy, Justin, Lynn, and Sharie selling jewelry from door to door. Turning to my right I saw Jason, Paul, Amanda, and Marianne taking a course in NRA.

As I was ready to leave a car pulled up which inside was the sixth grade basketball team who consisted of Jeff, Don, Taylor, Jason, Raymond, Corey, Douglas, Josh, and Kevin with second place trophies.

ABOVE: FRONT ROW: Jeffrey Jenson, Douglas Klipfel, Tanya Bender, Katherine Schleder, Dianne Reylets, Sara Shelden, Jessica Rohwedder, Beth Torrence. BACK ROW: Kevin Braa, Glenn Gunther, Taylor Sumption, Mrs. Jan Ellefson, Donald Nickelson, Corey Maunu, Jeffrey Cox, Raymond Voeller, Jason Strand.

ABOVE: FRONT ROW: Marianne Marttila, Sara Dieter, Sharon Maunu, Dacey Cutler, Amanda Nixon, and Amanda Cruse. MIDDLE ROW: Justin Wallace, Jeremiah Conley, Jason Cox, Travis Napton, Wyatt Scepaniak, Paul Sumption. BACK ROW: Mrs. Ann Hegge. Not Pictured: Jodi Gunderson and Dustin Schmierer.

New Students Reading

Both the fourth and third grade had instructors new to that class level. Janel Bergen to the fourth grade and Sandra Ullrich to third grade. The two classes placed first with their costumes in the homecoming parade. The fourth grade had two new students-Kevin Duntz and Jessica Ibanez.

The third grade held a six-hour Save-the-Whale Read-a-Thon in March. The money earned was used to adopt a whale-"Sea Wonder".

ABOVE: Fourth Grade is BACK: Darren Dosch, Jeremy Bakeberg, Jonathon Ellwein, Kevin Duntz, Joshua Dieter, Jesse Rystrom, Janel Bergen-teacher, Heidi Martilla, and Sheila Napton. FRONT: Gwen Schaunaman, Sandra Pehl, Jessica Ibanez, Nicole McLaughlin, Jennifer Paul, Jeramy Jensen, Brad Wollman, and Bennie Oches. Not pic.-Joely Larsen. BELOW: Third grade is BACK: James Sumption, David Maunu, Roger Steiner, Archie Clifford, Nate Cantwell, Daniel Napton, Sandra Ullrich-teacher, Adam Roettele, and Heather Rystrom. FRONT: Jared Torrence, Jill Schleder, Jason Goebel, Elisha Jung, Ellen Groop, Christina Olson, and Jesse Riggs. Not pic.-Lori Peldo.

ABOVE: 2nd grade BACK: Amber Geffre, Warren Sumption, Christopher Maunu, Denise Bradner-teacher, Beth Big Eagle, Lynn Huettl, Nathan Bakeberg, and Anne Sheldon. FRONT: Daniel Podoll, Connie Goebel, David Brummett, Joni Napton, Brian Jensen, and Jonah McLaughlin. Not pictured: Janelle Walworth, Joshua Walworth, Travis Olson, and Brandon Schlosser. BELOW: 1st grade BACK: Ryan Riggs, David Schlosser, Justin Kopetsky, Travis Schaun- man, Patricia Oches, Renee Brooks-teacher, Kendra Fisher, Heather Big Eagle, and Betty Jo Rohwedder. MIDDLE: Alisha Groop, Suzanne Geovannettone, Erin Braa, Stephanie Berger, Elizabeth Fonder, and Derek Sumption. FRONT: Nicole Storm, Mitchel Wilson, Lindsay Maunu, Bridget Torrence, Dustin Jung, and Neil Karjalainen. Not pictured: Jon Larsen.

Beginners/Special Help

The kindergarten class, with twenty-one students, made strides in preparation for first grade. Along with the routine of a scheduled day, they had time for art projects, music, educational games, a trip to the fire station plus performed for the senior citizens. The kindergarten students used the computers for the Write-to-Read program.

Karla Balster helps the special education students and had the chapter math program for students needing assistance in math. She meets with the students each day to help them increase their performance in the regular classroom.

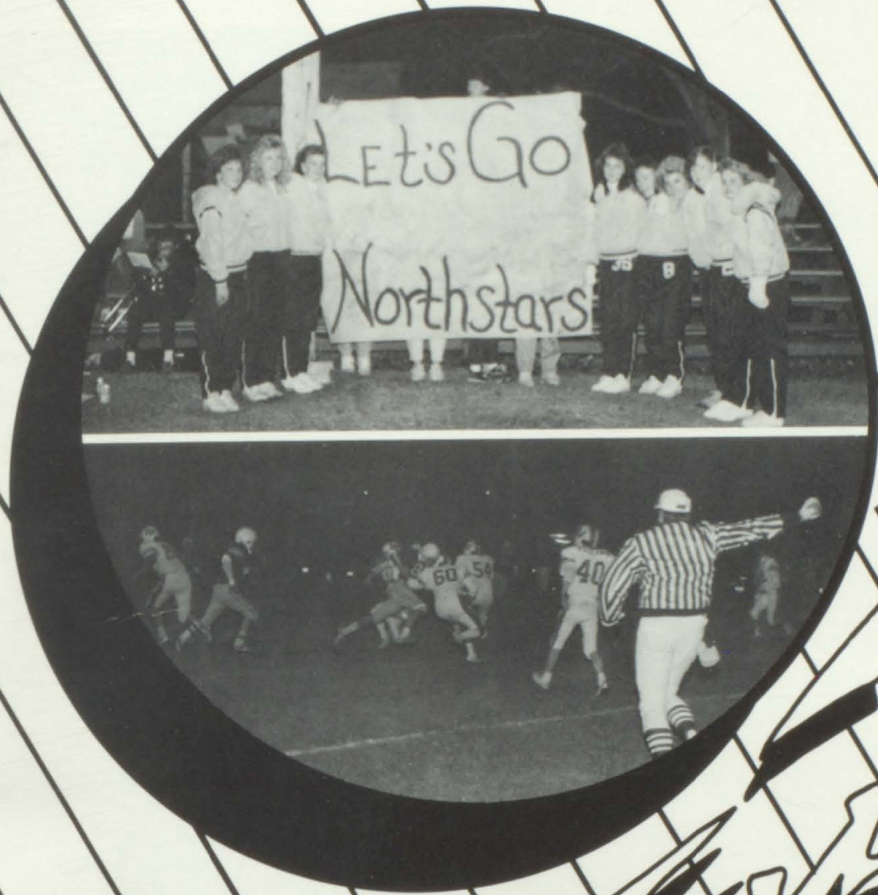

Rose DesCamps instructs the chapter reading program to aid students who may need a boost to improve reading skills. She also heads the gifted program. All students identified as gifted meet with Mrs. DesCamps for special work.

Mrs. DesCamps leads a talent pool group of students (4-6) to do special projects outside the classroom. The special projects this year were: environmental science, architecture, newspaper, and hooked on books (children's literature).

The kindergarten class members are BACK ROW: Jennifer Storm, Ryan Kolb, Shirley Heis-teacher, Seth Klipfel, Meagen Des Camps, Kimberly Kinslow, Margaret Sump-tion-aide, Liisa Nixon, and Dalton Dosch. MIDDLE ROW: Michael Mardian, Jennifer Kopetsky, Robert Jensen, Darlene Napton, Jon Fonder, Don Brummett, and Lindsey Voeller. FRONT ROW: Emily Sheldon, Leon Voeller, James Maunu, Derek Bretsch, Justin Brotzel, Sarah Breitag, and Dwight Pehl.

She also continued the Future Problem Solving team consisting of three sixth graders, three fifth graders, and four fourth graders. The team was presented problems for which the students used research and thinking to come up with possible answers. They ranked high on the problem of the elderly, but did not score quite high enough on the acid rain problem to get a state bowl invitation.

W E - G H T Y W A

ATHLETICS

Memorable Moments

O.K. sports fans! Time is running out! It all depends on this play! It's third and ten from the Northstar 40 yrd. line. There's the snap. Quarterback Darin Podoll draws back to fire. He's going deep to Les Huettl. There are defenders all around. The ball is tipped. Les goes for it. And, and. . .It's caught! TOUCHDOWN!!! Boy, those Northstars are smoking!

With these great moments fresh in our minds, we interviewed head coach Tom Oster and asked him what he thought of his 1987 football team. He replied jokingly, "I think they're a bunch of donuts. No, seriously, they were very young and inexperienced but excelled in their abilities and played up to their highest potential in every game."

The typical game day routine started out with all the football players showing up for school in their football jerseys and thinking about their game plan for that night. Some of the starters, along with the coaches, had the privilege of giving a speech to fire-up the fans at the weekly pep fest. At 5:45 the Hecla players arrived in Frederick to get ready for the game. As 6:30 rolled around, the guys became really anxious. It was time. They all ran down to the football field to do their warm-up exercises. Soon after, the eager fans rolled in, anticipating a Northstar victory. With the adreniline pumping on the field, as well as in the stands, the players lined up for the kick off and memorable moments were made.

Roger J. had 529 yds. rushing, he also scored the most points with 40. Les H. had 111 tackles. Darin P. threw 165 passes, completing 73 for 44% and 7 T.D.'s. Les was the only Northstar who made the All-Conference team.

This was the second season of the Frederick-Hecla coop and the State-line football camp.

ABOVE: The Northstars prepare for their Homecoming victory. They defeated Waubay Summit. BELOW: Amy Gerlach and Crystal Cox intently watch the game to make sure they get the stats right.

ABOVE: The J.V. return from a victory.

LEFT: The rowdy fans cheer on the Northstars and eagerly await a victory. The fans played a major role in the moral of the team.

1987 BOY'S FOOTBALL
SCHEDULE	RECORD 2-6
	We	They
Faulkton	14	28
Tri-School	18	16
Waubay-Summit	40	20
Roslyn-Bristol*	0	28
Northwestern*	20	28
Doland-Conde*	12	24
Langford*	8	12
Warner*	14	16
*Denotes Conference

LEFT: The 1987 Stateline Northstars are ROW 1: Kevin Ham, Jason Maunu, Les Huettl, Roger Jung, Jamie Huettl, and Coach Tom Oster. ROW 2: Pat Kinslow, Mike Rouse, Darin Podoll, Justin Scepaniak, Travis Cruse, and Asst. Coaches Pat Mikkonen and Jay Sonnenburg. ROW 3: Shannon Witte, Dave Gunther, Mark Sumption, Stephen Catlette, Mike Wilson, Mark Scepaniak, and Joel Campbell. ROW 4: Brett Dinger, Ryan Frohling, Ralph Wallace, Paul Maunu, Randy Huettl, and Dillon Cutler. ROW 5: Std.-Mgr. Brad Ronning, Jon Edwards, Cory Dinger, Eric Sumption, and Dan Nickelson.

BELOW: Mike Rouse carries out the triple option.

Viking Fever Hits

As it came to the end of girls basketball season, there were some solemn faces for the three senior girls. They knew that it would be their last game they would ever play with the team. It was brought to their attention by coaches Jones and Bergan, that they played an exceptional season and they should be proud of it. As for the rest of the team, they are looking forward to playing just as good or even better in the 1988 basketball season.

There was a special cheering section this year for the girls which mostly consisted of the guys in the high school. We call this "Viking Fever".

Leading the team as high scorer was Louise Hoerner with 308 total points. Following Louise was Tammie Mullner with 238 points. These points helped lead the girls to eight victories during the season.

There was only one unfortunate accident of the season; Milissa Paul's shattered knuckle and jammed finger in a cast.

The girls made it to the third round in the District Tournament to top off their season.

"1987 GIRLS BASKETBALL SCHEDULE" (SEASON)

RECORD 12-8

	WE	THEY
Aberdeen Jrs.	60	57
Hosmer	41	52
Northwestern*	59	52
Eureka	48	51
Hecla*	53	30
Langford*	33	74
Roslyn*	49	35
Warner	43	67
Conde*	30	48
Hecla	46	40
Bristol*	57	58
Veblen	72	66
Doland	45	54
Aberdeen Jrs.	43	40
Warner*	30	60
Langford	37	57
Roscoe	39	44
(DISTRICTS)
Roscoe	41	38
Warner	36	57
Leola	44	60
*Denotes-Conference Games

BELOW: A-Team members are: BACK ROW: Brad Jones; Coach, JoLynn Rohwedder; St. Mgr., Ann Rohwedder, Michele Rydberg, Louise Hoerner, Tammie Mullner, Amy Gerlach, Geraldine Klipfel, and Brad Ronning; Stat. FRONT ROW: Kirsten Barton, Amy Nixon, Rebecca Sumption, GeorgieAnn Hoerner, and Deserae Smith. ABSENT: Milissa Paul.

ABOVE: B-Team members are: BACK ROW: Tammy Clifford, Carla Sumption, Darcy Maunu, Kirsten Barton, Clarissa Napton, Lynette Huettl, and Stephanie Paul.

FRONT ROW: Sandy Huettl, Amy Nixon, Rebecca Sumption, Deserae Smith, GeorgieAnn Hoerner, and Tammy Huettl.

AN INVITATION FOR THE FANS FROM THE "LADY VIKES"

WHAT: Basketball is a game of teamwork, experience, challenge, and self satisfaction.

WHERE: The girls had spent many long hard hours in the gym cooperating and improving their team.

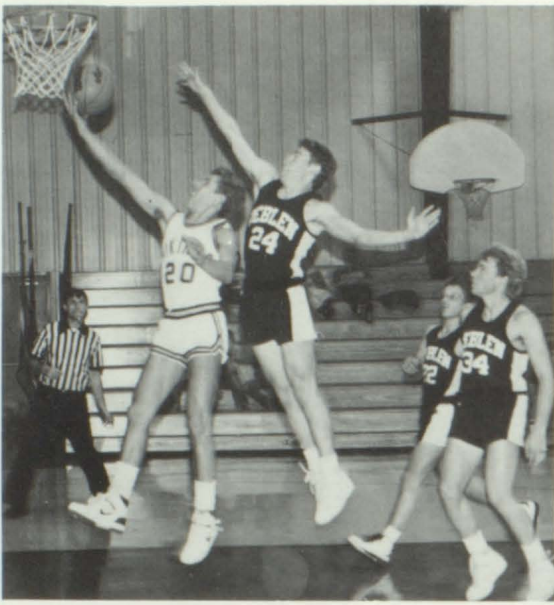

WHO: There was a variety of girls who showed up for practice every day, beings the A&B team plus the 7th & 8th grade had to practice together.

WHEN: After school they would all gather in the gymnasium to shoot around for about 30-40 minutes. Then their coaches would direct the girls in handling the ball and improving on their speed and agility.

WHY: "For fun" was the favorite reply from the B team and the 7th & 8th grade basketball players.

UPPER LEFT: Playing some tough defense in the Roslyn game is #14 Rebecca Sumption, #24 Deserae Smith, and #52 Kirsten Barton. LEFT: Mark Scepaniak, one of the many faithful Lady Viking fans readily cheers them on for another victory.

Thrillers End Season

Attention Viking fans! The '88 season ended with two big thrillers. During the district tournaments the first win over Bristol with a score of 62-61 and the second game of many three-pointers (Roger Jung and Brad Ronning with eight each and Darin Podoll with four) will be remembered. Even though the team was considered to be the "underdogs", the boys improved the enthusiasm and game plans to play some organized ball.

The season was full of ups and downs for the team and their coach Brad Jones. Tim Berg coached the B-team with a fairly decent season.

Les Huettl led the team in scoring followed by Darin Podoll and Roger Jung. Les was named to the all-conference team.

UPPER LEFT: Darin Podoll quickly attempts a lay up before Veblen captures a rebound. UPPER RIGHT: Where's the ball? M. Strand, L. Huettl, T. Cruse, and R. Jung are each at their positions trying to make another basket. MIDDLE RIGHT: KGIM radio broadcasters watch as Les Huettl attempts to score. RIGHT: Les Huettl, named all-conference, warms up with Roger Jung while Mark Scepaniak and Chris Sumption warm up in the back.

The 1988 A-team consisted of: BACK ROW: Assistant Coach-Tim Berg, Michael Wilson, Michael Strand, Stephen Catlette, Les Huettl, Justin Scepaniak, Travis Cruse, Chris Sumption, and head coach-Brad Jones. FRONT ROW: Dillon Cutler, Darin Podoll, Brad Ronning, Roger Jung, and Mark Scepaniak.

1988 BOY'S SCHEDULE

(record 3-14)

WE		THEY
61	Veblen	83
47	Roscoe	80
55	Dickey Central	46
55	Hecla	59
50	Northwestern	87
60	Eureka	67
44	Hecla	56
75	Langford	77
59	Roslyn	64
63	Warner	82

SCHEDULE Cont.

WE		THEY
64	Conde	83
55	Bristol	44
49	Aberdeen Juniors	67
57	Doland	53
50	Leola	79
49	Warner	68
66	Hosmer	76
DISTRICT'S
62	Bristol	61
61	Langford	70
46	Hosmer	66

The 1988 B-team consisted of: BACK ROW: Coach-Tim Berg, Michael Wilson, Chris Sumption, Stephen Catlette, Kevin Barton, Ralph Wallace, Eric Sumption, and Paul Maunu. FRONT ROW: Daniel Nickelson, Mark Scepaniak, Brad Ronning, Justin Scepaniak, Dillon Cutler, and Randy Huettl.

Larger Track Squad with Tougher Practices

This year the track team was the biggest it's been in quite a while. The practices were difficult this year due to the dry and hot season. If the wind wasn't blowing, the sun was beating down on the runners. There were a lot of letter winners this year also. By the time regions came, everyone was very pumped. One thing that stuck in all of their minds was 'Beat the red and white.' That was one of the main goals of the team. At regions, the weather was very uncooperative. It was cold, windy, and rainy. There were some real upsets. There were a lot of third places that just weren't good enough. The girls medley team, which was comprised of Milissa Paul, Louise Hoerner, GeorgieAnn Hoerner, and Deserae Smith, made it to the State Track Meet. This team was very excited. Because of this, they made their fastest time all year--4:25. This time was quick enough to make it to the finals on Saturday. In the finals, they placed third, which means that they are now the third best medley team in the state for the Class B schools. Great Job!!!

The boys were coached by Brad Jones. The girls were coached by Tom Oster. None of the track girls can forget his famous line, "You have to have a PMA--a positive mental attitude." That saying came in handy throughout the track season to help them strive for their goals. These two coaches deserve a gold medal for coming in first when it came to listening to all the moaning and groaning from the tracksters.

BELOW: Tammie Mullner, Catrina Crawford, and Louise Hoerner eat at Bonanza for Senior Night Out after Louise returned from a track meet at Sisseton. There, the 440 relay team broke their own record with an outstanding time. LOWER RIGHT: Deserae lifts weights. The boys and girls alternated days in the weight room for convenience.

LEFT: Becky Sumption smiles while she runs. Perhaps she just started, eh? ABOVE: Darcy Maunu, Michele Rydberg, and Carla Sumption run their daily 'horn' which consists of approximately two miles.

LEFT: Looks as if Louise Hoerner is in pain as she 'pumps iron'. ABOVE: Mr. Jones and Mr. Oster arrive with the shotputs and discusses as the girls stretch out.

LEFT: Justin Scepaniak is building up his biceps. Just remember Justin, "No pain, no gain!" ABOVE: Eighth graders, Janel McLaughlin, Stephanie Myhre, Lynette Huettl, and Cheryl Gage are waiting for Mr. Oster

School Spirit Soars

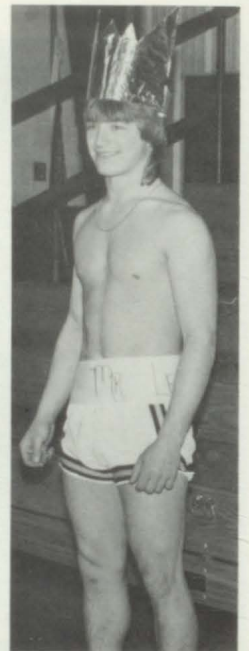

School spirit at Fred-erick was restored to an all-time high. This was mainly due to the fact that three of the "A" team cheerleaders attended a cheerleading camp in Sioux Falls. There they were taught new cheers and chants which they performed at the Dakota Bowl. They were awarded a trophy for traveling the farthest distance.

All of the cheerleaders were busy raising funds for new outfits, attending practice, organizing pep-fests, and creating new cheers. The pep club, started by the cheerlead-ers, encouraged the team throughout football and basketball. Their advisor was Miss Duerre and the alternates were Gerri Klipfel and Darcy Maunu.

UPPER RIGHT: Roger Jung is "Mr. Legs". UPPER LEFT: "B" team, front to back; Deserae Smith, GeorgieAnn Hoerner, Becky Sump-tion, and Amy Nixon. BELOW: "A" team is Louise Hoerner, Catrina Crawford, Tammie Mullner, and Milissa Paul.

ABOVE: Cheerleaders building their pyramid.

W - I - G - H - T - Y

W - I - G - H - T - Y

ACTIVITIES

First "BANG" of Year

This year's Homecoming festivities started off with a BANG!!! The excitement began with the student council choosing the daily attire for the coming week. The fun started with hat and glasses day. Students arrived wearing anything from cowboy hats to baseball caps, and shades in a multitude of colors. Anything was to be expected on Tuesday with the appalling punk theme and the auction of the freshmen class. On Tuesday night, students and teachers laid out their "Sunday best" to be sported on Wednesday which was dress up day. Slave day was an important part of that day, as the freshmen were initiated into high school. At Wednesday night's coronation, Bernice Hoerner and Jason Rydberg crowned Louise Hoerner and Les Huettl as the 1987 Homecoming Royalty. Thursday was slob day where only the grubbiest clothes were acceptable. The evening was spent watching the girls basketball team play a challenging game against Hosmer. Maroon and gold were the colors for the last exciting day of Homecoming week. The parade started at 2:00 displaying many floats from the classes and the community. A Jr. High football game began at 3:00 and was sponsored by the sophomores. The weeks celebration came to close with the Northstars victory over Waubay-Summit; the score? 40-20!

RIGHT: The freshmen took first place in the skit competition with the skit entitled "The Style Show." Shown are: B. Sumption, R. Wallace, P. Maunu, A. Nixon, R. Huettl, K. Barton, M. Rydberg, D. Nicholson, E. Sumption, D. Smith, and D. Cutler.

ABOVE: The sophomores class entry "The Statue of Liberty" won first place in the float competition. BELOW: The Northstars football team is recognized at coronation festivities by Coach Tom Oster.

ABOVE: From left to right is honor guard: Robin Smith, Catrina Crawford, Amy Gerlach, Louise Hoerner, Tammie Mullner, 1986-87 Queen: Bernice Hoerner, King: Jason Rydberg, Les Huettl, Jason Maunu, Andy Olson, Kevin Ham, and honor guard: Travis Cruise.

LOWER LEFT: The girls basketball players were recognized during coronation festivities by coach: Brad Jones. LOWER RIGHT: M. Strand, J. Rohwedder, S. Bender, S. Jung, and G. Klipfel portray the Waubay-Summit Dragons in the junior class skit.

ABOVE: Jimmy Sumption pulls one of the community floats. LEFT: The 1987-88 Royalty King: Les Huettl and Queen: Louise Hoerner are shown with crown bearers Lyndsey Voeller and Jonathon Fonder.

BELOW: Here Robin Smith enthusiastically ends her piece.

BELOW LEFT: Tammie Mullner pauses to recall a line. BELOW RIGHT: Here Michelle Mardian does a no-no by peeking at her script. LOWER RIGHT: Louise Hoerner experiments to see which pose is best.

Compete for Fun

This year, nine students joined oral interpretation under the advisors Merry Duerre and Sharon Heisinger. They competed at three contests. The first contest, held at Northern State College, was mainly a practice session for the upcoming local contest. The winners of the local contest: Louise Hoerner, Tammie Mullner, Stacy Bender, Gerri Klipfel, Michelle Mardian, and Robin Smith, advanced to the districts in Britton. While no one placed, each participant improved her own speaking ability and captured ideas by listening to others. The most difficult thing the students find about preparing for such events is finding the time to practice with their advisors. It's just not the same practicing in front of the mirror all the time.

DUET:

Louise Hoerner
Tammie Mullner

ORATORY:

Tammie Mullner

HUMOROUS:

Stacy Bender
Stacey Braa

SERIOUS DRAMA:

Geraldine Klipfel

POETRY:

Michelle Mardian
Tricia Maunu
Clarissa Napton

SERIOUS PROSE:

Robin Smith

BOTTOM ROW: Robin Smith, Stacey Braa, Michelle Mardian, Stacy Bender. TOP ROW: Geraldine Klipfel, Louise Hoerner, Tammie Mullner, Clarissa Napton, and Tricia Maunu.

Dare to be Different

The yearbook staff worked hard day and night to meet hectic deadlines. The theme, "Dare to be Different", showed in the different and exciting stories created by the talented annual staff members. The theme wasn't the only thing that had a different taste to it. There were more changes than just the stories, such as the change of planning and finishing the pages. It took some getting used to but they adapted well. Some things didn't change, though, as they were still plenty busy writing, typing, pasting, measuring, cutting, and interviewing. They also held the usual fundraisers like calendar and magazine selling and entertaining the community with the yearly funfest.

UPPER LEFT: Mrs. Maunu, yearbook advisor, assists Gerri in finalizing a page. MIDDLE LEFT: Brad Ronning watches as Mr. Helminski demonstrates the new paste-up process to the yearbook staff. LEFT: The annual staff members are: Stacy Bender, Crystal Cox, Tammie Mullner, Robin Smith, Milissa Paul, Catrina Crawford, Sandy Jung, Michelle Mardian, Geraldine Klipfel, Louise Hoerner, and JoLynn Rohwedder. Other helpers included Brad Ronning, Darin Podoll, and photographer Mike Strand. LOWER LEFT: The three tri-editors are Tammie, Louise, and Catrina. BELOW: Crystal works diligently to finish her page by the deadline.

Peppy Music

The new pep band music kept the thirteen band members excited every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. The band used these new numbers for football games, basketball games, and pep fests.

The band had a different situation this year, with only one boy, Bert Klipfel. Another difficult situation was the fact that there was nobody playing the saxophone. Deserae Smith started playing it the second semester.

The band marched in the Homecoming Parade to the song "Rocky Top". The band also played for coronation.

Robin Smith and Kirsten Barton took a baritone/trumpet duet to the Region IV music contest. They received a II on their performance.

After boys basketball was over, the band had a change of pace. Instead of playing the fast tempo of pep music, they switched to a pace of classical music. This was to prepare for the Spring Concert held in April. The band planned to play for Memorial Day Services as their last yearly performance.

ABOVE: Miss Nikolas helps in a lyceum with a rope trick: A Cowboy's Wedding Ring. ABOVE RIGHT: Between band and drill team, halftime was very hectic for JoLynn Rohwedder and Robin Smith. RIGHT: Members of the pep band are: BACK ROW: Amy Nixon, Deserae Smith, Robin Smith, Kirsten Barton, Gerri Klipfel, Jo Rohwedder, Michele Rydberg, and Tammie Mullner. FRONT ROW: Instructor Cindy Nikolas, Tammy Clifford, Bert Klipfel, Stephanie Paul, and Janel McLaughlin. Not Pictured: Milissa Paul.

FRONT ROW: Vince Olson, Shane Storm, Paul Maunu, Jason Maunu, Ryan Bakeburg, Danny Nickelson.
 MIDDLE ROW: Tara Bunke, Tricia Maunu, Instructor-Cindy Nikolas, Lynette Huettl, Cheryl Gage, Carla Sumption, Stephanie Paul, Janel McLaughlin, Becky Sumption, LeAnn Maunu, Stacy Bender.
 TOP ROW: Georgie Ann Hoerner, Amy Nixon, Deserae Smith, Stacey Braa, Robin Smith, Bonita Maunu, Kirsten Barton, Ann Rohwedder, Geraldine Klipfel, Michele Rydberg, Tammie Mullner, Louise Hoerner, Catrina Crawford, Darcy Maunu, Sandy Jung, Michelle Mardian. Not Pictured Milissa Paul.

Earth Music

A small green alien peeked out his UFO window, as he listened to the FHS chorus. "That must be what earth people call music," he chuckled to himself. A woman, Cindy Nickolas, the director, was doing fancy little tricks with her hands; and another, Mrs. Teresa Schaubenbach, accompanist, was creating different sounds from a large wooden box. The alien was observing the Christmas concert held in December.

Two small groups of girls participated at the contest held in Aberdeen during January. Some girls also sang at graduation.

The small alien decided "earth music" was too complicated for him and he journeyed home.

TOP LEFT: A. Nixon, B. Sumption, D. Smith, G. Klipfel, R. Smith, and B. Maunu received an excellent at the Region Music Contest.
 MIDDLE LEFT: K. Barton, S. Braa, B. Sumption, B. Maunu, M. Rydberg, and M. Mardian, also participated at the contest. ABOVE: Mrs. Schaubenbach as she perfects a new song for the chorus.

A Night of Memories

Memories was the theme for the 1987-88 Frederick Snow Queen Festival. Excitement filled the air.

Miss Frederick was Louise Hoerner with Tammie Mullner as 1st runner-up and Amy Gerlach as Miss Congeniality. Darcy Maunu took the reign as Jr. Miss Frederick while Amy Nixon was 1st runner-up.

Of the past Frederick Snow Queens, several were present to be recognized and to give their own special memory of their reign.

Ready for the contest, nervousness set in.

In the afternoon, the candidates were interviewed and were served a luncheon.

Entertainment included square dancers, Johnny Mikkonen, drillteam, and Norman Wright singing "Memories".

Senior candidates were Crystal Cox, Catrina Crawford, Amy Gerlach, Louise Hoerner, and Tammie Mullner.

UPPER RIGHT: The Senior Snow Queen candidates congratulated Louise after she was crowned Miss Frederick.

UPPER MIDDLE RIGHT: The Junior candidates are Stacey Braa, Kirsten Bartom, Michele Rydberg, Amy Nixon, Deserae Smith, Becky Sump-tion, and Darcy Maunu.

MIDDLE RIGHT: J. Rohwedder, G. Klipfel, and R. Smith perform drillteam routine. RIGHT: Little Misses sing a song.

BELOW: "OH NO" says Geraldine Klipfel at the sight of her untied bow, as Robin Smith smiles and urges her on. LOWER LEFT: The Drillteam is at work practicing for their next performance.

Smile Girls

Sensationally the Vikettes performed routines that were choreographed by themselves. The girls worked in pairs to create movements to a variety of songs. Practices were held after school Mon., Thur., and Fri. during the boys basketball season.

Money needed to buy new sashes and bows was raised by raffling a 31 inch pink bear, and by selling jewelry and calenders.

Into the Frederick High School gym the ladies bopped during half-time of the basketball games. Next they were off to Districts held in Aberdeen. State B's at Huron was the next stop and last performance. They returned home after having a succesful season.

Lady Vikettes were advised by Mrs. Roberta Eisenbeisz. Her main chant of the year was "Smile girls, smile!"

Excitement, butterflies and relief were very much a part of every performance. But none-the-less the girls came shining through.

FIRST ROW:
Georgie Ann Hoerner. SECOND ROW: Amy Nixon, Becky Sumption, Louise Hoerner, Milissa Paul, Deserae Smith. THIRD ROW: Geraldine Klipfel, Robin Smith, Tammie Mullner, Trina Crawford, Jo Rohwedder. FOURTH ROW: Darcy Maunu.

Council gets Smaller

Ideas get Bigger

The Student Council was smaller than usual this year. Instead of having nine members, it only had seven. It consisted of the class president from grades 7-12 and a Senior, chosen by the student body, to preside over the council.

But, in spite of this, they came up with bigger ideas. One job of the Student Council was to plan the Homecoming festivities. Another was to pick a movie to watch at Christmas. When this task came up they thought of a less expensive alternative. They decided to watch the movie "Hoosiers" because Christmas was during boys basketball season. But instead of renting the movie in reel form, as was done in the past, they decided to rent two VCR's and save money. The idea worked and the movie was a big hit among most students.

New Club Started

The Library Club, started by Librarian Miss Duerre, was new this year. The duties shared by club members included filing and organizing incoming magazines and newspapers and categorizing checked-out books.

To decorate the library, the club formed two groups and made posters to hang up in the library. At monthly meetings, the club discussed ways to motivate students to use the library and what new books to order.

The 1987-88 Student Council members are, BOTTOM ROW: Carla Sumption and Vince Olson. MIDDLE ROW: Amy Nixon and Jamie Voeller. TOP ROW: Missy Paul, Secretary/Treasurer, Roger Jung, President, and Tammie Mullner, Vice President.

Members of the Library Club are, ROW 1: Robin Smith and Stacy Bender. ROW 2: Brad Ronning, Missy Paul, Sandy Jung, and Michelle Mardian. ROW 3: Darin Podoll, Gerri Klipfel, Bonita Maunu, and JoLynn Rohwedder. ROW 4: Tammie Mullner and Louise Hoerner.

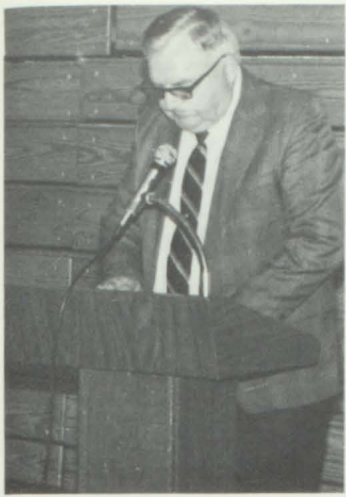

Special Honors Night

Awards Night was held on May 12, 1988. Student Council President Roger Jung gave the welcome and introduction for the program. Principal Doyne Jensen presented awards to the Student Council and students who had a perfect attendance record. He presented Catrina Crawford with the DAR award. He gave Boys and Girls State recognition to Travis Cruse and Jo Rohwedder. He also presented Tammie Mullner her award for being the Honor Student for the Class of 1988.

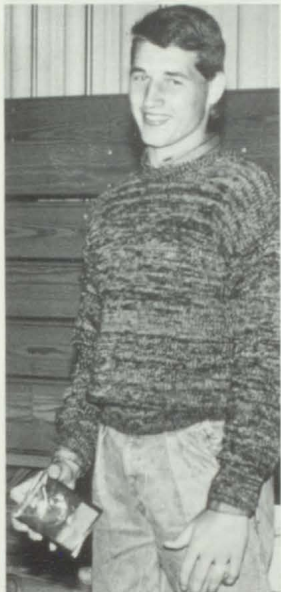

Catrina Crawford, Louise Hoerner, Tammie Mullner, and Les Huettl received scholarships for their academic and athletic achievements. Various other academic awards were presented to several Seniors. Jo Rohwedder also received a scholarship for a summer business program. Roger Jung and Tammie Mullner were the recipients of the American Legion School Awards, which were presented by Tom Dosch.

Mr. Berg presented the Math and Computer awards. Stephen Catlette was given special recognition for placing first in the LRC Geometry contest. Mrs. Maunu presented the Typing and Yearbook awards. The Senior band and chorus ring and pins were awarded by Miss Nikolas, as were the Music Lyre awards. Miss Duerre presented the Oral Interpretation, Library, Drama, and Cheerleading awards. Drillteam awards were presented by Mrs. Eisenbeisz. Mr. Jones and Mr. Oster, with the help of Pat Mikkonen, presented the Athletic awards. Special awards for Football and Girls and Boys Basketball were presented to various athletes.

Louise Hoerner and Les Huettl received the U.S. Army Scholar/Athlete Awards. Louise also received the U.S. Marine Distinguished Athlete Award.

ABOVE: What was that?
RIGHT: You guys!

You want my auto-gragh, too?

This is fun!!!

T. Mullner, Best Actress, B. Ronning, Best Actor, M. Strand, Best Supporting Actor, and R. Smith, Best Supporting Actress receive their "Oscars".

LOWER LEFT: Play Cast L to R; Darin Podoll, Milissa Paul, Les Huettl, Tammie Mullner, Brad Ronning, Michelle Mardian, Tom Gunther, Crystal Cox, JoLynn Rohwedder, Justin Scepaniak, Robin Smith, Louise Hoerner, and Mike Strand.

Down to Earth

-The best play I've seen in my entire life.

-Ellendale Evening Post

-The special effects were astounding, especially the fog!

-Frederick City Star

-This play had me and the entire audience rolling in the aisles with laughter.

-Brown County Banner

-The ending had a delightful twist that surprised everyone.

-South Dakota Dispatch

Although the above reviews are fictitious, something similar may have appeared had the FHS Junior-Senior play been reviewed.

As the story of Down To Earth begins, two angels, Agnes and Wilfred and Pilone, the half-angel, come to earth. Agnes is sent to take back miserly old Augusta Applegate. Wilfred is to return with the sweet, retired sailor Herman Howell.

When mischeivous Pilone interferes by playing cupid all goes haywire. Herman and Augusta fall in love and refuse to die and Pilone falls in love with Diana, Augusta's maid. Diana is suddenly hit by a car and Pilone wants to go to Heaven with her so badly, he earns his other wing. In the end the four angels happily ascend leaving Herman and Augusta in love and living happily ever after!

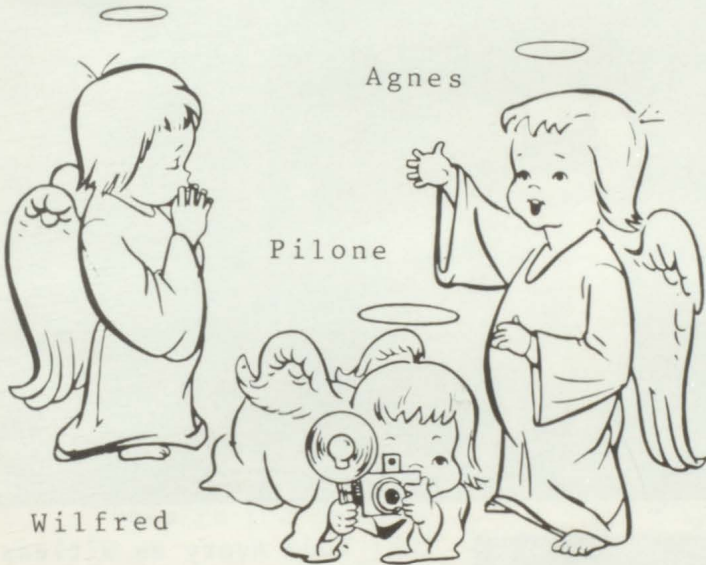

TOP: T. Gunther, C. Cox, and B. Ronning descend to Earth in a cloud of fog. MIDDLE: B. Ronning startles L. Hoerner as he plays with her hair and she thinks it's D. Podoll. BOTTOM: The elderly L. Huettl and T. Mullner discuss their accomplishments in life.

BELOW: T. Mullner sits as M. Mardian waits for R. Smith and L. Hoerner to finish their greeting.

Cast of Characters

Director	Merry Duerre
Wilfred	Tom Gunther
Pilone	Brad Ronning
Agnes	Crystal Cox
Augusta Applegate . .	Tammie Mullner
Diana Clump	Michelle Mardian
Orpha Teel	Robin Smith
Ruthie Teel	Louise Hoerner
Millie Broomsley . .	JoLynn Rohwedder
Baxter Broomsley . .	Justin Scepaniak
June Broomsley	Milissa Paul
Richard White	Darin Podoll
Herman Howell	Les Huettl
Robert Hanley	Michael Strand
Stage Crew	Roger Jung
	Travis Cruse
	Jason Maunu
Student Directors	Sandy Jung
	Stacy Bender
Spotlight	Pat Kinslow
Make-up and Costumes . .	Amy Gerlach
	Catrina Crawford
	Georgie Ann Hoerner
	Rockell Ham

ABOVE: The elderly T. Mullner looks heavenward asking for help in dealing with L. Huettl. UPPER-RIGHT: Another day at practice and T. Mullner is again surrounded by angels. RIGHT: Our director Miss Duerre with her ever-present smile.

Snow White & Dwarfs

Fifty Elm Valley students (K-8) had a grand opportunity to take part in the Missoula Children's Theatre production of Snow White & the Seven Dwarfs. The production, from tryouts to performance, took place during one week, March 18-23.

Todd and Penny Avery were the directors from the Missoula Children's Theatre. They had the children audition and begin practice on Monday and they practiced each day (Tuesday-Friday) from 1-5 p.m. On Saturday two performances were given (3 p.m. and 7 p.m.)

Todd Avery played the part of Witless the Woodsman while Penny Avery played the part of the Wicked Queen. As they acted with the children on stage, the children responded whole-heartedly to their abundance of enthusiasm and disciplined praise.

The production was funded by a grant from South Dakota Arts Council and Chapter II ECIA.

On Saturday an art exhibit was set up in the gym lobby. Laura Schaunaman displayed art projects from the elementary students. Teresa Schanzenbach displayed projects from the high school art classes.

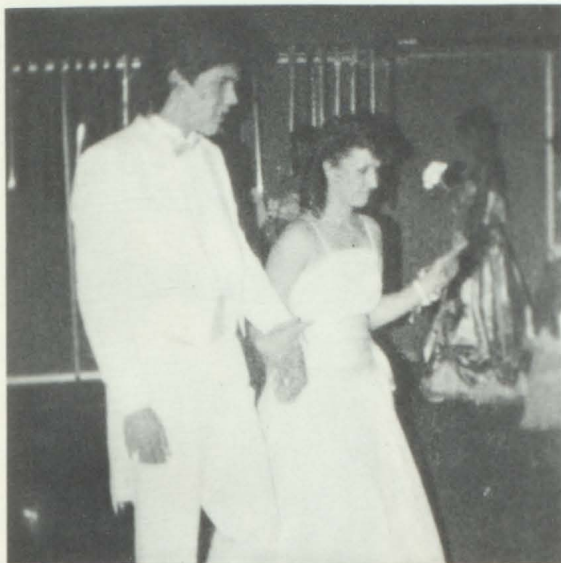

The productions were well attended. Parents, relatives, and friends seemed to enjoy the day.

ABOVE: The whole cast of fifty students, with their directors, were on stage for the closing curtain call.

TOP: Todd Avery as Witless and Penny Avery as the Wicked Queen perform with the students. ABOVE: Tom Rexinger as the King, Sara Sheldon as Snow White, Tanya Bender as the mirror, and Corey Maunu & Reed Mahlke as the Henchmen, shared in excitement of performing before an audience. Costumes were provided by the Missoula Children's Theatre.

BELOW: Travis Cruse and his date Sharla Daly as they go through the Grand March.

ABOVE: One of the '88 Prom balloons that adorned the room.

Poem to the Seniors

Another year goes passing by Another prom is here,
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others brings a tear.

For four years you have tread
 a path
 From dawn to setting sun,
 But now the path gets steeper
 And the climb is just begun

We're very glad to know you,
 We'll miss you when you've gone
 And to the Class of '88
 We dedicate our prom.

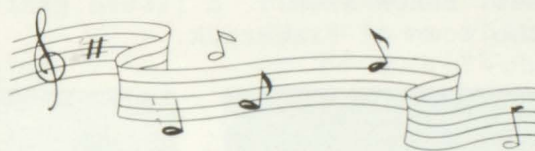

-The Juniors

I Won't Forget You

This year's Junior-Senior Prom was truly unforgettable to match the theme song, "I Won't Forget You". It was held May seventh at the Aberdeen Inn and decorated in blue and silver. The large banquet room held an air of royalty and mystique as the guests arrived. The students who usually looked ordinary were now all decked out in tuxes and formals in a variety of colors and styles.

As Laverne Guidice began her speech, she took us back to the good old days when little boys and girls could barely stand the thought of touching each other, let alone dancing together.

The evening ended nicely with dancing music provided by Don Casels. So the students returned safely home satisfied by the delicious meal, but exhausted from a fun-filled evening.

"I WON'T FORGET YOU"

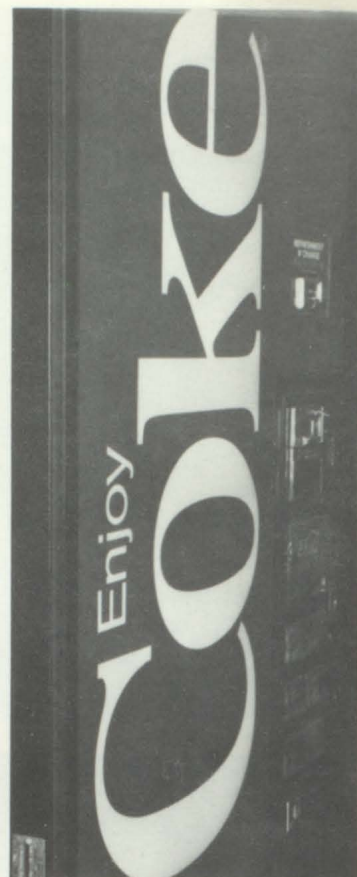

PROM 1988

Around the World In A Year

So what's new locally and throughout the state? There have been several changes occurring in Frederick. The Ponderosa Bar, the local hangout, closed at the end of March due to the new drinking age of 21. Frederick also has a new police officer, Judy Hanson, patrolling the streets. A few other new things Frederick has acquired this year include trash cans, dollar vending pop machines in the high school gym, and the graffiti on the walls of Frederick.

There have been several things happening through the state, too. One of the major events is the South Dakota Lottery. "Are you playing?" Wouldn't life be boring if nothing new ever happened in Frederick?

BELOW LEFT: This South Dakota Lottery ticket is not a winner. BELOW RIGHT: A little graffiti is added to the town of Frederick.

UPPER LEFT: Pond is vacant after closing. UPPER RIGHT: New pop machine in the gym. ABOVE: Twins won the World Series in 1987.

BELOW: Frederick's new police officer's car. RIGHT: One of the new trash cans that were distributed to Frederick residents. UPPER RIGHT: Spanish is a new class taught to Frederick students.

Roger

Andrew

Kevin

James

Leslie

Darcy

Tammie

Catrina

Louise

Jason

Amy

Crystal

Class of '88

Entering our senior year we discovered that seniors get to do a lot of fascinating and not so ordinary things. Such as taking a senior class trip to see the capital building in Pierre, S.D., going to government day at the court house in Aberdeen, senior night out which was held at Bonanza in Aberdeen. And then there was times which proved to be a bit challenging like trying to decide which college to go to and how to fill out the financial aid forms. But as seniors we decided we needed a little break, so we had the annual senior skip day at Richmond Lake, which turned out to be an extremely enjoyable day.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ADMINISTRATION 4

- Bain, Sharon 4
 Balster, Karla 28
 Barton, Kevin 13, 20, 35
 Barton, Kirsten 22,32,33,40,44-46
 Bender, Stacy 8,20,41-43,45,48
 Berg, Tim 9,35
 Bergan, Janel 26
 Berger, Mishel 21
 Braa, Stacey 22,42,45,46
 Bradner, Denise 27
 Brooks, Renee 27
 Brokaw, Jackie 11
 Bus Drivers 5
- Campbell, Joel 21,31
 Catlette, Stephen 21,31,35
 Cooks 5
 COX, CRYSTAL 2,13,16,30,43,46,50,51,55
 CRAWFORD, CATRINA 2,16,41,43,45,47,49,53
 Cruse, Travis 20,31,34,35,41
 Custodians 5
 Cutler, Dillon 22,31,35,40
- DesCamps, Rose 28
 Duerre, Merry 8,51
- Eisenbeisz, Roberta 6,7
 Ellefson, Jan 25
 Ellsworth, Gary 21
- GERLACH, AMY 2,13,16,30,32,41,46,51,55
 Getty, Leighton 4,10
 Gunther, David 21,31
 Gunther, Tom 20,50,51
- HAM, KEVIN 2,16,31,41,55
 Ham, Rockell 21,
 Hegge, Ann 25
 Heis, Shirley 28
 Heisinger, Sharon 11
 Hoerner, GeorgieAnn 21,32,33,45,47
 HOERNER, LOUISE 2,16,32,41-43,45-48,50,55
 HUETTL, JAMES 2,31,55
 HUETTL, LES 2,17,31,34,35,41,49,50,55
 Huettl, Randy 22,31,35,40
 Huettl, Sandy 21,33
- Jensen, Doyne 4
 Jones, Brad 14,32,35,41
 JUNG, ROGER 2,17,31,34,35,48,55
 Jung, Sandra 20,41,43,45,48
- Kendall, Roger 4
 Kinslow, Pat 13,20,31
- Klipfel, Bert 22,44
 Klipfel, Geraldine 20,32,41-48,
 Lahr, Peter 20
- Mardian, Michelle 13,20,42,43,45,48,50
 Maunu, Bonita 12,20,45,48
 Maunu, Darcy 12,22,33,45-47
 MAUNU, JASON 2,13,17,31,41,55
 Maunu, Paul 22,31,35,40
 Maunu, Susan 12,43
 Maunu, Tricia 21,42,45
 MULLNER, TAMMIE 2,17,32,41-51,55
- Napton, Clarissa 21,33,42
 Nickelson, Dan 22,31,35,40,45
 Nikolas, Cindy 44,45
 Nixon, Amy 22,32,33,40,44-48
- OLSON, ANDY 2,13,17,41,55
 Oster, Tom 2,6,31
- Paul, Milissa 12,20,43,47,48,50
 Podoll, Darin 20,31,43,35,48,50
- Rohwedder, Ann 7,21,32,45,
 Rohwedder, Jo 20,32,41,43,44,46-48,50
 Ronning, Brad 20,31,32,35,43,48-51
 Rouse, Mike 20,31
 Rydberg, Michele 12,22,32,40,44-46
- Scepaniak, Mark 21,31,33-35
 Scepaniak, Justin 20,31,35,50
 Schanzenbach, Teresa 10,45
 School Board 4
 SIEBER, DARCY 2,17,55
 Smith, Deserae 22,32,33,40,44-47
 Smith, Robin 8,20,41-51
 Strand, Mike 20,34,35,41,49,50
 Sumption, Chris 21,34,35
 Sumption, Eric 22,31,35,40
 Sumption, Margaret 28
 Sumption, Rebecca 22,32,33,40,45-47
- Torrence, Justin 21
- Ullrich, Sandra 26
- Voeller, Jamie 21,48
- Wallace, Ralph 22,31,35,40
 Wilson, Mike 21,31,35
 Witte, Shannon 21,31
- Ylitalo, Ruth 4

