"I Gave My Blood, Sweat, And Tears" - Future

Losing 14 seniors, the Titans knew they would have some growing pains as they finished with a 3-5 record, but there was some great improvement throughout the season. "We started out pretty slow, but we got better each week," said Logan Weisser. Coach Morlock said that, "we have a little youth movement going on this season." With only 3 starting seniors and 2 starting juniors, the Titans had many underclassmen starting on both sides of the ball, but they made their presence known. "I thought the younger kids did very well this year and you could see their confidence grow each week," remarked senior Kyle Kenser. Offensive leaders included: Kyle Kenser with 763 passing yards, 317 rushing yards and 14 TD. Logan Weisser with 895 rushing and receiving yards with 12 TD, and Zach Sumption with 352 rushing and receiving yards and 4 TDs. On the defensive side of the ball, Stephen Haas had 74 tackles and 1 interception, Logan Weisser had 67 tackles and 2 interceptions, Kyle Kenser had 53 tackles and 3 interceptions, Jordan Haas had 53 tackles. Kyle Kenser and Stephen Haas were named All-Conference Honorable Mention while Logan Weisser earned All-Conference and All-State.

Cross Country

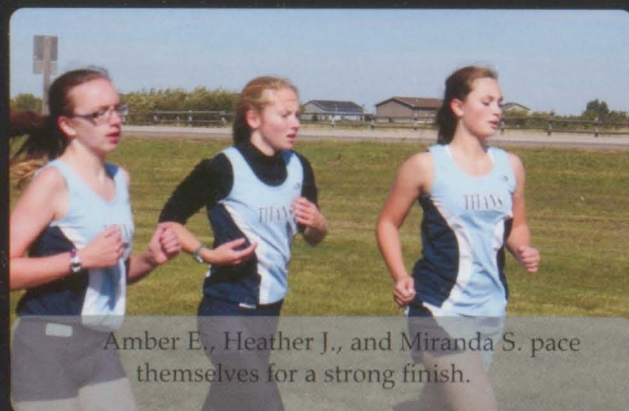

With a roster consisting only of one junior, four sophomores, two freshmen and one eighth grader the cross country team used this year as a learning experience. With all runners coming back for next season there is much potential to look forward to in the future. Michaela and sister Brooklyn Podoll were both letterwinners with Michaela bringing home all-conference honors. Brooklyn Podoll commented on her season as an individual and as a team. "This season, after making the State meet last year, was not as successful as I hoped, with everyone coming back next season I hope to have a better individual season and we are hoping for a better season collectively as a team also."

Volleyball

The Titans reached the double-digit win mark during the 2014-15 campaign, something that has been difficult to attain in recent seasons. After beginning the season 2-5 in mid-September the girls heated up winning six of seven matches before cooling off. Coming off a tough battle against Herried/Selby the girls would go into playoffs and defeat Aberdeen Christian before falling to powerhouse Northwestern in three straight sets. Lone Frederick senior Paige Podoll shared her reflections on the season, "I thought that the volleyball team improved a lot from my junior year to my senior year. If you ask just about anyone that watched us, they would probably tell you the same thing. This year we had a more tight knit group of girls and I think that helped us a lot on the court. Throughout my senior year, we improved in certain areas like serving and serve-receive. I don't think that there was much of a change from the first game to the last game, but we definitely got more comfortable with our rotation and spots which helped us a lot. Volleyball is the one thing I know I will miss from high school and I wish that I had a chance to redo my senior year of volleyball!"

All-Conference Junior MacKenzie H. brings down the hammer for another kill.

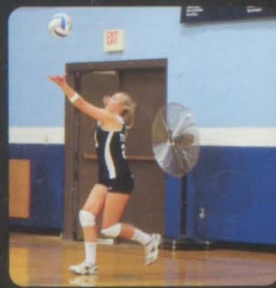

The girls get jacked up for their District match at the Civic Arena.

Paige P. pushes the ball back over with pure determination.

Boys Basketball

The 2014-2015 boys basketball season was somewhat of a roller coaster. Most wins were a tough fight while the losses weren't as close. The Titans were led by seniors Kyle Kenser, Logan Weisser, and Jayden Mikkonen. The three had trouble distributing scoring early on but combined for 74 points against Edmunds Central. Despite the sub-.500 record the main bright spot this year was Logan Weisser's game winning three against South Border in Ashley, ND. Jayden Mikkonen reflected on the season saying, "It was hard fought, we had some tough losses to swallow but we always battled." Logan Weisser will remember the win against Aberdeen Christian early in the season, "it was a good game for us but we couldn't build on that early season success."

Logan Weisser was named 1st Team All-Conference and Kyle Kenser was named Honorable Mention.

Girls Basketball

The 2014-15 Lady Titans experienced something very rare this year, they entered this season with zero seniors on the roster. The regular season did not give them any sympathy but entering the District Tournament the Titans won three of their last four games before falling to Northwestern in the quarterfinals. Scoring wise they were led by MacKenzie Heilman's 292 points on the year followed by Michaela Podoll's 182. Heilman also led the team in rebounds and Podoll led in assists. Heilman was named 2nd Team All-Conference and Podoll was named Honorable Mention. Savana Hinz reflected on the season with these thoughts, "I think there were several areas we improved on as a team this year including; ball movement on offense, learning to be patient, move the ball, and running the offense was something we worked on a lot. We seemed to have struggled offensively at times, which made our hard work on defense very important. Working as a team and our communication on the court got better throughout the season. I'm excited for next year knowing that we will have the same group of girls back. We will all be a year older and more comfortable playing together."

Michaela P. goes into flight mode taking on the Webster defenders.

Boys and Girls Track

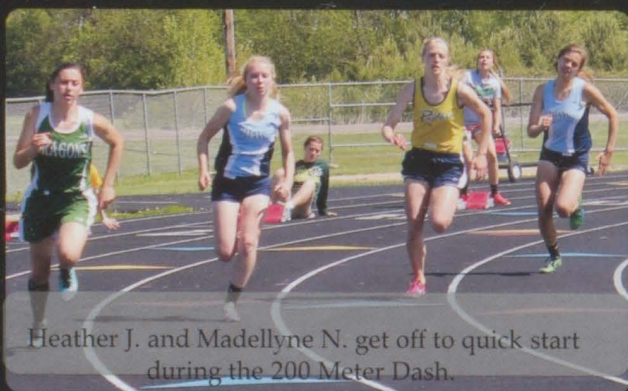

The 2015 track season proved very memorable for the Titan track athletes as they managed to take 14 athletes to the state track meet, the most they have taken "in a long time" according to Assistant Coach Wayne Haas. Motivated by all of Head Coach Morlock's wise words the boys and girls often found themselves winning many sprint relays at meets. "We went out there and wrecked some house this year, and had fun doing it," remarked senior Kyle Kenser. Both teams hope to return to the State Meet next year as the boys lose only 3 seniors and the girls lose none.

Golf "Smash! Bang Gotta Hit the Ball Far" - Golf Boys

The final season of Titans golf ended this year. The team consisted of just two seniors Jayden Mikkonen and Nathan Block. Jayden's season was considered a roller coaster ride when he shot a low of 90 in a couple meets and 100s the next. Nathan's season was up and down as well shooting a low of 101 but other times scoring in the mid 110s as well. Keeping consistent with the last 3 years, Jayden missed the State Golf Meet by one stroke. The boys were coached by Lynnette Hertel this season.

Sam Stories

"I remember for track he would bring his tent and it had a sticker that said no mas pantalones."

- L. Schlosser

"When Mr. Morlock would make Sam put his hand down and allow him to only answer so many questions per class because he would always raise his hand first."

- M. Podoll

"I remember in English, if I said ANYTHING sarcastic, Sam would correct me with different technicalities or be even more sarcastic, and all I could think to say was "Thank you Sam" and he'd always, without fail, reply with "Always here to help."

- M. Heckler

"I remember when he would always call me Bryson White and tell me to lay off the McDonald's."

- B. Witte

"In class, when the teacher would ask a question, and whether we knew the answer or not, we'd always turn and look at him, and he somehow always had the answer for every question."

- A. Eclipse

"In elementary, Keely and Sam had an argument over what they should name a complementary angle mixed with a supplementary angle; they got into the funniest arguments over the dumbest things ever, all the time."

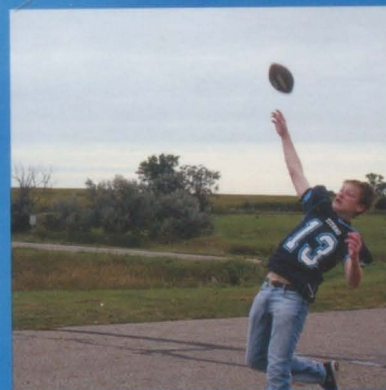

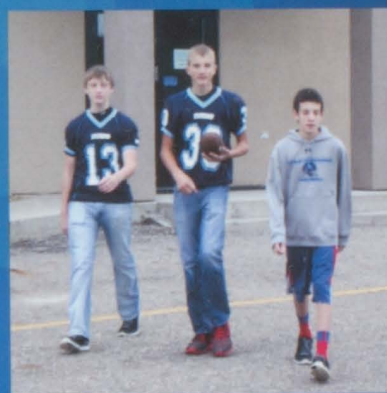

- M. Podoll

"Whenever anyone would tell him good game after a basketball game he would sarcastically answer, "Oh yeah, swishing those 3's in the varsity game is a lot of work!"

- K. Podoll

"When we played Edgeley and Sam made a half court shot at the end of the game."

- T. Heilman

"Freshmen year, Sam and I sat by each other in 5 of the 6 classes we had together. Since we always sat next to each other, he'd always joke around and say, "So you're saying this is getting pretty serious huh?"

- K. Podoll

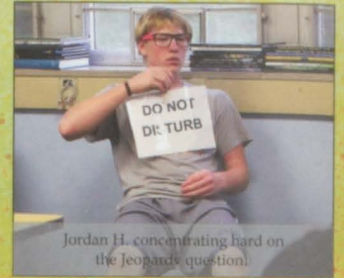

"Freshmen year he named his iPad charger, 'The Pocket Charger' and in 8th Grade when he would randomly sing 'Bird Is the Word'."

- C. Hinz
