Welcome to the 2012 yearbook!
As you flip through the pages,
we hope you will see what happened throughout the year.
There were only two of us creating this yearbook, and it was fun, but stressful, and a little hectic at times. We finally have pulled it all together for you to enjoy!

What Motivates You Before A Game?

Alex Bretsch, Senior

Before every game, the starters would go into the locker room and we would listen to music and get jacked up. Then right before kickoff we would do our "Gotta Win" chant and our prayer. That's what motivates me.

Adam Dutenhoffer, Senior

The thing that motivates me the most is to get ready and go listen to music and just think about what I'm going to do on the field. Also what gets the blood flowing and prepares me is doing the 'Gotta Win' chant in the huddle.

Brian Sumption, Junior

What motivates me before a game are the goals we set for the team before the season. I believe that when you know what you want, and you want it badly enough, you'll find a way to get it.

The volleyball team had a rough season but they didn't give up and even won their first round of districts. Junior Peyton Podoll said, "We all enjoyed having Holly as our coach this year." Coach Mueller stated that "There were some ups and downs but the girls played very well as a team and improved in that area throughout the year also. I think overall it went well and I am looking forward to next season. If each player improves, then by default the whole team will improve."

What basketball advice would you give to underclass athletes?

Always put forth 100% and never give up. Enjoy each game and each practice to the fullest because you never know when it may be your last.

The most important thing any athlete should have a positive and encouraging attitude. Also, they should have good ball handling skills.

You have to keep working hard to get better, and having good ball handling skills is a great asset to have.
